Centre Hastings Township holds inaugural council meeting

by Jeff Wilson

The new municipality of Centre Hastings Township held its inaugural council meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

The five elected council members received their declaration of office and oath of allegiance, which was performed by Father McAuley. Reeve Tom Deline, Deputy-Reeve Walton Reid, Councillors Larry Mitz, Dave Schulz, Crichton Harrop.

The meeting was opened by Clerk Doug Parks.

Deline informed fellow council members that the former Huntingdon Township would have been entering its 147th year of existence, while the former Madoc Village would be entering 120th year.

In his opening address, Deline said that he has faith in staff and council members to carry the new municipality into the new millennium.

Deline also took the opportunity to make the announcement that a local company Canada Tale has been sold to a Vancouver group. He described this as "absolutely good news."

The other members of council were invited to make comments. Deputy-Reeve Walton Reid stated he was pleased to be elected to the council for the new municipality and pledged to do his best to keep up with his obligation.

Huntingdon Ward Councillor Larry Mitz said he was looking forward to working the fellow council members who have a great deal to accomplish. He added that he was also looking forward to learning more about the urban part of the municipality.

Huntingdon Ward Councillor Dave Schulz said he forward his best effort working with the new council. He added that he hoped the new council could have good co-operation, leading to good decisions to benefit both the rural and urban sections.

Madoc Ward Councillor Crichton Harrop told fellow council members that the Monday before Christmas he took the opportunity to ride the garbage truck through a portion of the former Huntingdon Township and seen the "nooks and crannies." He added that he will ride the garbage truck again so he can see the rest of the former township.

Area resident Russell Sills who was present to witness the first meeting of the new municipality said it was a pleasure to attend the first meeting and he felt the township was "in good hands" and members of council had hard and difficult jobs ahead of them, and wished them all the best in the next three years.

Following the council members' comments, council decided on regular council meeting dates. Council will meet on the second Wednesday and last Tuesday of every month. The Wednesday meeting will be held at the former Huntingdon Township hall, while the Tuesday meeting will be held in the former Madoc Village office. The meetings will begin at 7

Citizens on Patrol in need of volunteers

Citizens on Patrol, a local non-profit group which patrols the village streets in an effort to make them safer for residents, is in need of more volunteers.

The group poses this question to village residents, "This is our community, we care about it, how about you?"

Volunteers are being asked to provide two to three hours of their time each week to patrol the streets. Volunteers can pick the days and times they would like to go out on patrol. Those interested would drive around the village looking for break-ins and any out of the ordinary situations.

Citizens on Patrol has devised a zone system, splitting the village into sections.

Those interested in joining Citizens on Patrol can attend the group's next meeting on Jan. 22 at 7 p.m., at the Madoc Pentecostal Church (downstairs, back door).

For more information contact Ron Deschamps at 473-4357.

Council discusses committee structure

by Jeff Wilson

The Centre Hastings Township Council discussed the structure of committees of council during their inaugural meeting held on Friday, Jan. 2.

Reeve Tom Deline said that he will be appointing members of council to the various committees. He took the opportunity to share some of his initial thoughts on the make-up of each committee. Deline asked council members to think over his proposal and if they had a difficulty to bring it forward at the next council meeting on Jan. 14.

The committees of council will consist of General Government, Protection and Development, Transportation, Environment and Health, and Recreation and Social Services.

The General Government committee will be responsible for budget approval, staff, Hydro and intergovernmental liaison, and will be the responsibility of the Reeve.

The Protection and Development committee will be responsible for fire, police, conservation authority, inspection and control, licensing, zoning and land use, industrial development.

The Transportation committee will be responsible for roads and sidewalks, winter control, parking and street lights.

The Environment and Health committee will be responsible for water system, sewer system, garbage collection, garbage disposal, pollution control, medical services and cemetery.

The Recreation and Social Services committee will be responsible for recreation, arena, library, senior citizens, service clubs, social services and ball parks.

Council's representation on the two local conservation authorities and the arena and library boards was also discussed. Deline said that he would like to appoint one member of council to sit on both conservation authorities, arena boards, and library boards.

Council must send a representative to sit on both the Moira River and Lower Trent conservation authorities, Madoc and Shirling library boards and arena boards.

Peewee A's go 2-1 on weekend

This past weekend the Stirling Legion Peewee A Blues stretched their season record to 11-2-4 with two victories and a loss.

The Blues hosted Brighton Saturday evening and came out with a tight 4-3 win over a determined Braves squad. The visitors opened the scoring midway through the first period. The Blues were unable to counter until the second when they took a 2-1 lead midway through the period on goals by Matt Couperus and Gabe McInroy. Brighton fought back and counted two more before the end of the period to take a 3-2 lead into the third. The third period was all Blues as they dominated the Braves and kept the puck in the Brighton zone for most of the period. They were rewarded with goals from defencemen Tyler Lyon and Matt Couperus with his second of the night. Drawing assists were Tyler Lyon (2), Matt Couperus, Brad Pollock, Craig Fleming and Cody Thompson.

The next evening the Blues travelled to Belleville to take on the Bobcats. The Blues dominated the play early but were only able to score one in the opening period by Cody Thompson from Todd Ackers and Brandon Robinson. Two more goals in the second period stretched the lead to 3-0. Matt Couperus with his second closed out the scoring. Assists in the third were given to Jesse McInroy (2), Mike Lessard (2), Stephen Jackett and Matt Couperus.

David Sharp was not tested a lot, but made some solid saves to preserve the shutout.

Monday evening the Blues faced Frankford which has developed into a strong rivalry this season. The game got off to a poor start for the Blues as twice early in the first the defence and forwards allowed Husky forwards to step out of the corners and slip shots under goaltender Josh Campbell. The rest of the period wasn't much better as lapses in their zone cost them again as the Blues allowed two goals late in the period.

In the second period even a change of goalkeepers didn't snap the team out of their doldrums as Frankford scored two more to take a 6-0 lead in the game.

The Blues saved some face with a good third period that reaped two goals from Gabe McInroy and Cody Thompson but it was too little too late as they suffered a 6-2 shellacking by the Huskies.

The Legion Peewee Blues gained a win and a tie versus the Campbellford Colts in back to back games prior to Christmas.

In Campbellford, the Blues were in control of the game on goals by Todd Ackers in the first period and Matt Couperus in the second. The defence was allowing few opportunities for Campbellford to penetrate and get shots on goal. A power play by Campbellford to start the third period changed the complexion of the game as the Colts gained confidence after the goal and started to put pressure on the Blues. Campbellford finally tied the score late in the game and two late goals by each team failed to change the outcome. The Blues final goal was scored by Tyler Lyon. Assists in the game were awarded to Stephen Jackett, Mike Lessard, Cody Thompson and Gabe McInroy.

The two teams faced off again the next evening in Stirling. The Blues wanted to atone for the mistakes made the previous evening. Mike Lessard from Stephen Jackett started the scoring in the first. Lessard again assisted by Matt Couperus and Gabe McInroy and Todd Ackers from Brandon Robinson counted in the second period, but Campbellford countered with two of their own.

In the third period the Blues outscored the Colts 2-1 for a final 5-3 score. Gabe McInroy scored both third period goals assisted by Matt Couperus and Mike Lessard.

Atom A Blues play busy holiday schedule

by Sherry Tompkins

The Cooney Farms Atom A Blues hosted Campbellford but proved to be very poor hosts inviting them to a 17-0 slaughter! Goals and assists were obviously abundant. Highlights include hat tricks for Harrison Hellyer and Jamie Stevens and five assists for A.J. Marshall. Credit should be given to the goalie for Campbellford, who received 59 shots on goal.

On Dec. 20, Stirling hosted Ennismore Eagles. The first period was almost blanked, but Stirling's Ken Buxton pulled one off with less than a second to go. He was assisted by Max Empey. The second period belonged to the Eagles, who scored twice. In the third period, the play went end to end. First Stirling A.J. Marshall, assisted by Max Empey. Then Ennismore managed two more. Stirling made an excellent effort and managed one more by Ken Buxton, assisted by Max Empey. However, time ran out and the team lost 4-3.

The Atom A Blues end the year with a win! Dec. 21 the Blues travelled a short distance to Belleville to meet the Bobcats and pounced on them! Stirling's Chris Buxton popped in the first one, assisted by Jamie Stevens and Brett Greer. Then a second goal from Ken Buxton, assisted by Cole Tompkins and Derek Brown. Belleville managed to get one back in the second. However, this was countered by the third goal for Stirling and the last of the game. This came from A.J. Marshall, assisted by Jamie Stevens and Brett Greer. Another great game for the team and goalie Jason Stapley.

The players must have made resolutions to play harder, because the competition is getting tougher! On Jan. 3, the team travelled to Brighton, for a closely matched game. Stirling started off hot! Ben Hagerman scored first, assisted by Jamie Stevens. This was followed up by Max Empey, assisted by Brett Greer and Ben Hagerman. Brighton managed to get one back late in the first. The second period was a real ping pong match. Max Empey put in another, assisted by Gordon Thomas and Ben Hagerman. This was immediately countered by Brighton. Then Stirling again, this time by A.J. Marshall, assisted by Cole Tompkins and Chris Buxton. Then back at us again, with one from Brighton. The third period began with a 4-3 advantage for Stirling. However, Brighton really turned up the heat in the third, managing two more goals and winning 5-4. A valiant effort was made by the team and goalie B.J. Kiddie.

The very next day the team travelled to Belleville, for another close one. Once again Stirling goes to the board first, compliments of Ben Hagerman, assisted by Gordon Thomas. Next to score was Jamie Stevens, assisted by Cole Tompkins and Harrison Hellyer. The third goal of the game came from Ken Buxton, assisted by Max Empey and Brett Greer. Belleville managed two goals in the second, but couldn't get up the steam to get ahead. Stirling ended the game with one last goal, popped into the net by Cole Tompkins, assisted by Max Empey and Brett Greer. An excellent game was played by goalie Jason Stapley.

Novice A's open year in tournament

Stirling's Dairy Queen Novice A Blues opened the New Year with an all day tournament in Deseronto on Jan. 2. In the opening game the boys came up short against Tamworth, dropping a 4-1 decision. Justin Desjardins had a great game, scoring the only goal and being selected game MVP.

The Blues drew the host Bulldogs in the second match and from the opening face off couldn't get on track losing 5-1. Justin Talsma was bright spot scoring Stirling's lone goal, with assists to Glenn Cashin and Kyle Rowe. Justin Talsma was also voted the game's MVP.

In the "C" final, the Blues faced Colborne in what turned out to be a pretty good game. Colborne opened the scoring in the first and was quickly answered by Luke Reynolds' breakaway goal, assisted by Glenn Cashin and Corey Utman. In the second, Colborne scored two goals

10 seconds apart, but the boys wouldn't quit and Glenn Cashin scored from Luke Reynolds and Jerret Tanner to go into the third period down only one. But the third period's only goal went to Colborne, with the game ending 4-2. Luke Reynolds was named Stirling's game MVP.

Stirling's Dairy Queen Novice A Blues entered the Christmas break on a high note. On Friday, Dec. 19 the boys played host to the Belleville Bobcats and came up with one of their best games of the season, blasting the Bobcats 5-0. Corey Utman led his team with three goals, Glenn Cashin followed with a goal and three assists, while Michael Robinson chipped in a single. Mackenzie Lloyd had a pair of assists, with singles to Luke Reynolds, Travis Donaldson and Justin Desjardins.

On Sunday, the team travelled south to Memorial Arena for the rematch and met a very pumped up Bobcat team. Glenn Cashin opened the scoring midway through the first period, assisted by linemates Corey Utman and Luke Reynolds but the Bobcats tied it up with 25 seconds left in the first. And that was all she wrote, as the game sea-sawed back and forth with great goaltending on both ends, before ending in a 1-1 draw.

Monday night saw the Frankford Huskies in town looking for a win, but the Blues quickly jumped in front 2-0 on goals by Glenn Cashin and Kent Fleming with assists to Justin Talsma, Patrick Shearer, Luke Reynolds and Travis Donaldson. The Huskies battled back with a goal in the second and another in the third, then, with only 10 seconds remaining, a Husky player was hauled down on a breakaway and awarded a penalty shot. With the game on the line and everyone holding their breathe, goalie Tim Carr held his ground to preserve the tie.

Women urged to arrange for mammogram screening

Lee Fernandez of the Haliburton Kawartha Pine Ridge District Health Unit underlines the need for all women to seriously submit to regular mammogram tests.

The following facts underline the seriousness of the situation.

Breast cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death in women (lung cancer from smoking is the first).

One in nine Canadian women will get breast cancer.

One in 23 Canadian women will die of it.

Twenty-two per cent of all potential years of life lost are because of breast cancer.

The cause of breast cancer is not known and therefore it cannot be prevented.

Most women with breast cancer have no known risk factors other than age. Risk increases with age.

Incidence rates by age are: 1 in 250 for age 30-39; 1 in 71 for age 40-49; 1 in 48 for age 50-59; 1 in 34 for age 60-69; 1 in 30 for age 70-79.

Mammography can detect tumours so small that they cannot be found that early by other means. Early treatment increases survival rates dramatically. Nine per cent of tumours that are found very early can be cured.

Studies have shown that 90 per cent of women have heard of breast cancer and mammography yet less than half do anything about it.

The Ontario Health Survey 1991 indicated that only half of the women age 50 and over in our area have ever had a mammogram. If the other half were screened, it is estimated that every doctor in our area would have a patient saved as a result of early detection.

A mammogram is a low dose x-ray of the breast. Mammograms can detect lumps when they are very small, long before they can be felt by a doctor. Once a woman is able to feel a lump herself the tumour has grown to the point where treatment is more difficult and less successful.

A mammogram takes only 15 minutes and is covered by the Ontario Health Card. Women should have a mammogram at age 50 and every two years thereafter.

Why aren't younger women told to have mammography screening?

Several clinical studies throughout the world show that there is no benefit to screening women under age 50. In younger women, there is a far lower rate of breast cancer and, because the breasts of younger women are more dense, too often mammograms are not as accurate.

False positive reports on younger women are common and cause more harm than good. Only after age 50 is there a significant benefit to encourage all women of that age and older to be screened.

Petes visit St. Paul's: Members of the Peterborough Petes hockey team made a surprise visit to St. Paul's school in Norwood Tuesday morning where they talked to youngsters in the primary classes and then signed some autographs. Captain Mike Martone (wearing a sling due to an injury), Cory Crocker and Blaine Fitzpatrick, along with public relations co-ordinator Jeff Crisp, emphasised how important it is to stay in school and make the right choices and not give in to peer pressure. They also noted that as long as students gave their very best effort and did their homework then they should do alright in school. The Petes also talked about what it was like to live away from home and stay with host families where they are expected to do chores around the house just like any other family member. The future NHL'ers were a big hit with the St. Paul's crowd who were not afraid to ask them questions. Some time in the new year the Petes will return to St. Paul's and talk to students in the senior grades. Photo/Bill Freeman

Book marks 200th anniversary

A history of Haldimand Township was recently released at a book launch held at the Grafton Village Inn in early December.

The first-ever history of the township was published to coincide with the 200th anniversary of its settlement and is entitled: "Memories of Haldimand Township."

When the lakes roared."

It is a limited edition, hard-cover book, beautifully designed in sepia tones and published by The Boston Mills Press with approximately 200 pages and more than 100 old photographs and maps.

The contents cover such subject material as the general development and settlement of the township, and the individual hamlets; transportation, agriculture, communication, architecture, pioneer entertainment, sports, medicine and societies.

It appears that Haldimand Township had one of the last slave trades in Canada, and

Norwood angler catches big one, sets new Ont. record

First to set record in this category

Norwood - A Norwood angler has earned a spot in the Ontario Record Fish Registry after landing an incredible 5.88 lb. shorthead redhorse.

The Ontario records are kept by the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters (OFAH).

It was back on May 4 when Steven Carter dropped a line in the Trent River in Trenton and hooked the record fish using a Rapala Husky Jerk 6-pound test line. Carter is the first to set a record in this category.

Carter's shorthead redhorse, measuring a whopping 24 inches in length and over 14 inches in girth, is primarily a bottom-feeding species. The shorthead redhorse is spread across much of Canada and the U.S. preferring clear water lakes and streams.

Carter followed the rules that called for him to measure and photograph his fish before taking it to a district office of the Ministry of Natural Resources, or the OFAH, for species identification.

The fish was then frozen so that following its acceptance as a new Ontario record, fiberglass reproductions can be created by Advanced Taxidermy -- the Registry's official taxidermists. One reproduction is displayed at the OFAH Conservation Centre in Peterborough and a second is awarded to the record-setting angler, along with a certificate recognizing the accomplishment.

The OFAH Ontario Record Fish Registry has been developed to recognize the largest fish angled legally from Ontario waters. Forty-nine game and non-game fish categories can receive recognition.

Rebels celebrate holidays by regaining league lead

By Rolly Ethier

Those Campbellford Rebels sure know how to celebrate the holiday season.

In addition to indulging in the traditional Christmas and New Year's repasts, the Rebels also tucked three impressive victories under their belts to sweep back into first place in Empire Hockey League junior C play.

One of those victories should have sent a convincing message to the rest of the teams that they fully intend to start getting serious about their defence of the league championship. On Saturday, Dec. 27th on home ice, the Rebels trounced the Picton Pirates 9-3.

Rebels followed that sparkling performance by knocking off the Napanee Raiders 5-2 on Napanee ice the following afternoon. Then last Friday night, back at home before one of the biggest crowds of the season, the Campbellford skaters overwhelmed the tailend Colborne Black Hawks 9-3.

After the ice chips had settled in weekend action, Rebels suddenly had regained first place by a three-point margin over Picton, which, however, has two games in hand. No one else is close. Ernestown Jets occupies third place with 26 points, followed by North Frontenac Flyers with 25 and Napanee with 23. Colborne trails with 17 points.

The league's top scorer Kevin Larmer and Travis Turner led the onslaught against Picton with two goals each while singles were netted by Chris Roy, Bryce Levesque, J.P. Goulah, Jim Hazlewood, Matt McCoy and Scott King.

The Picton goal-getters were Andy Jowett, Ian Brooks and Scott Wilson.

It was Larmer again providing the scoring punch against Napanee as he connected for three more goals while Ryan White and J.P. Goulah added singles. Scoring for the Raiders were Clayton Godfrey and Mike Manion.

Campbellford blasted in three unanswered goals in the first period in their Jan.

2nd home game against Colborne and went on to blitz the hapless Hawks. Jim Hazlewood enjoyed a productive night with a three-goal performance while rugged Ian Pettie fired two assists.

The other Rebel snipers were Bryce Levesque, Tony Goulah, Jeff Hay and Adam Hagerman.

Colborne kept within striking distance for two periods, trailing 4-2, but the Rebels erupted with a five-goal salvo in the final period to make life miserable for goalie Kory Glover. Glover faced a barrage of 42 shots in all, making 14 saves in the last 20 minutes as the Rebels swarmed all around the Colborne net.

Scoring for Colborne were Kory Dumas, Justin Williams and Mike Dennison, with Scott Gilmore picking up a pair of assists.

Larmer was unable to add to his goal-scoring total but picked up three assists to increase his scoring lead. He now has 30 assists to go with 28 goals for 58 points, five more than Ernestown's Jason Withers.

The latest 50/50 winner was Grant Warner, who pocketed $73.50, while Gerald Brunton won the Chuk-a-puck contest and Brendan Fleming claimed the shoot-out prize.

More Abled Than Disabled

By Barbara Bruce-Pealow

A wonderful Christmas party

Hello Everyone! Hope your holiday season was a happy one. Mine was a busy one including the More Abled Than Disabled Christmas Party. The club would like to recognize and thank a few people. Actually, this column is dedicated to giving thanks to some who have helped others in the past year.

First of all thanks goes out to club member Barbara Sullivan who cooked the meal, and all from scratch. There was a delicious pumpkin pie that had coconut in it! Watch the column in the future. I'm going to "sweet talk" her into giving me this recipe to pass along to you. We had so much food. The traditional turkey was cooked to perfection. Thanks goes out to Gary and Pat McCracken for donating it for our dinner. The bird was organically raised by Pat's sister. Also we're sorry the McCrackens couldn't make it to the party and we all hope everything is well. The turkey was donated in fond memory of John Fry. Thanks also goes out to all who helped Barb's husband, Brad, her mom, Jean Knapp, and friend Linda Crevier. Weasowish to acknowledge and thank the musicians who shared their gift of music with us, and the Multi-Care Lodge for providing the room.

Next, thanks goes out from Sandra Outingdyke and Montse Elvadoro from "TEENWORK". This agency which provided young people with the opportunity to improve a number of things in their life as well as helping the community, has closed its doors, but would like to thank all those who were consumers of Teenwork services. Sandra and Montse wish to especially thank Paul Imperial, owner of the Aron Cinema, and Robin and Lucky, owners of Needful Things, for the benefit movie held at the beginning of last December.

There are so many people I could give thanks to but, as I make it a regular practice to show appreciation, I decided to write about the effects of giving a thank you.

Showing appreciation is a way to acknowledge the person and the deed in a positive way. It makes the person doing the deed feel like they are getting gratification for helping. "Thank You" are two words that are very powerful. We are taught at a very young age to say please and thank you. Drawn out fully, please could look like this: "It would please me"; and thank you could look like this: "I thank you for it". Just an example of how it does serve to gratify. People like to help and please as well. Acknowledging by giving thanks can help raise a person's self-esteem and make them feel good about themselves. In the dictionary thanks is stated as 1 - "say that one is pleased and grateful for something given or done." 2 - "consider or hold responsible." Give thanks and show you care.

Now for chow!

This recipe is a light dish to have after the yuletide feasting season. Hope you enjoy it!

Should Canada's military history include Holocaust?

Dear Editor:

Perhaps it is time to bring closure to the public debate regarding plans to expand the Canadian War Museum.

The misunderstanding which has arisen was predictable. The veterans of this country had been promised an expanded Canadian War Museum based on the recommendations of a $250,000 task force which carried out an extensive study and presented its report in 1991.

The major recommendation was that the Canadian War Museum should stand alone rather than be subject to the dictates of the Board of Trustees of the Canadian Museum of Civilization.

A second recommendation was that additional funding be available for exhibit space. This was partly due to the loss of the War Trophies Building—a two-storey structure which stood beside the present War Museum on Sussex Drive in Ottawa.

It was torn down to make way for the National Gallery. Hence the expectation of Canada's veterans and those interested in our military history was that the additional exhibit space would be made available to meet the mandate of the War Museum. That mandate, in simple terms, is to preserve Canada's military heritage.

Enter several other factors.

One: the world-renowned Imperial War Museum in London, England, was installing a Holocaust gallery. Two: the Board of Trustees of the Museum of Civilization seemed anxious to expand its own mandate, which is to present cultural and historical displays, depicting events within and beyond the borders of Canada.

The Board of Trustees thought (perhaps understandably) that the logical place for a Holocaust gallery would be in the War Museum. In putting forward this proposal they obviously failed to realize that it would create a major controversy based—not on the inclusion of a Holocaust gallery—but on whether the Holocaust was part of Canada's military history.

Not Proper Place

I became involved as chairman of the National Council of Veteran Associations (an umbrella group representing some 33 organizations). We applauded the proposal for a Holocaust gallery (and perhaps other exhibits to memorialize the killing of civilians by our other World War Two enemy—Japan). We did not feel, however, that the War Museum was the proper place for exhibits depicting the horror of mass murder of civilians dictated by the governments of countries which were our enemies at the time.

Probably unwittingly, the proponents of the Holocaust gallery in the War Museum were precipitating a very serious division between two segments of the Canadian population who had long admired and supported each other: veterans and Canadian Jews. In any event, the plans were announced without consultation.

In an attempt to deflect a major confrontation, Rabbi Jordan Pearlson, founder of the Sinai Temple in Toronto, contacted me. We both agreed that we had to act in a decisive manner to head off the misunderstandings which were bound to arise.

We thought we had reached a compromise which would see a freestanding Holocaust gallery, possibly in the same location but not part of the Canadian War Museum.

In fact, we had agreed to write a joint letter to the Toronto Star and I had conveyed this information to Bernie Farber of the Canadian Jewish Congress, who agreed, in writing that the proposition would be acceptable. Unfortunately, this did not come to pass. There was certainly opposition to it from both veterans and the Jewish community.

My experience in Ottawa with matters affecting veterans had allowed me to deal with two previous contentious issues. The first arose out of a film by the National Film Board which was critical of the late Billy Bishop, VC. The second concerned a television series produced privately and aired on the CBC under the title of The Valour and the Horror.

Democratic Platform

In both instances, the prestigious Senate Subcommittee on Veterans Affairs had provided an area where all parties could air their views, with the possibility of a Parliamentary report which could resolve the basic issues. In fact that happened. Both films were reissued as documentaries, containing introductory "riders" to the effect that the contents were, in part, fictional.

Canada has some interesting democratic processes. I have found through more than 45 years of experience in Ottawa that the Senate can be one. With this in mind, I suggested that the issue be referred to the Senate Subcommittee on Veterans Affairs. I agreed publicly that, for my part, I would be pleased to accept the fig-ings of that Subcommittee.

The Senate approved the resolution which permitted the Subcommittee to review the plans for expansion of the War Museum. The resolution reads:

"That the Subcommittee on Veterans Affairs be authorized to examine and report upon all matters relating to the future of the Canadian War Museum, including, but not restricted to, its structure, budget, name and independence."

The hearings are scheduled to start Feb. 2nd, 1998.

Although those ugly words—anti-Semitism and racism—have crept into the debate, they were never the issue. It was always about how much space should be accorded for military exhibits in the new War Museum.

Secondly, whether a suitable location could be found for the proposed Holocaust Memorial.

If not, could it share premises (not a precept as we have had more than two museums under roof in Ottawa before now).

As to content, the Museum should be confined only to military aspects. objectives of a Holocaust museum could be much wider in scope—but certainly should not be subject to vicissitudes from War Museum people whose job it is to re-tell the story of the glorious military past.

Kaladar

by D. Twomey

Those happy days, a memory sweat recall
Of carefree hours - free as the winds that blow
The mossy glades where scarlet leaves did fall
Where graceful birch and sturdy maple grow.

Wandering through swamp, coarse grass and rushes slender.

Thrusting through brush, the brambles, thick to hinder
Through willows gaunt - long tentacles of grey.
A rocky knoll with moss, a stunted oak aslant when first the sun's rays stole o'er yonder hill
And pierced through slender beeches on the rill.

And the lake -- long arms outspread,
Of ruffled shadows, dark depths in a muddy bed
Agasp, drank in its splendour, a beauty to behold
Streaks of shimmering waters fringed with orange and gold.

And we stumbled on, and I crashing too
Sprawled midst crag and fern, laughed at heaven's blue
The startled duck rising with curving speed.
A cackling went ere we could draw a bead.

And plodded on through rushes thick, and slime
Scaling the boulders round, the highest peak to climb.
Weary and tired but happy, we lay on damp ground.
And resting awhile -- did scan for miles around
That mystic gift, the splendour that nature hath unfold
A melody of colour, pastel and brilliance bold.

The new Catholic District School Board

Editor's Note: The following Transition Update was prepared by the Communications Sub-Committee of the Local Education Improvement Sub-Committee.

for the Peterborough Victoria Northumberland and Clarington Roman Catholic Separate School Board. It is provided to help explain the changes taking place.

Over the last several months, the provincial government has released information on changes to Ontario's school boards. It is clear that these changes represent a profound reorganization of Ontario's education system.

To students, staff, parents, clergy and ratepayers in the Peterborough Victoria Northumberland and Clarington Roman Catholic Separate School system, the passing of the Fewer School Boards Act (Bill 104) means that as of Jan. 1, 1998, provincial education changes will result in the formation of the new Peterborough Victoria Northumberland and Clarington Roman Catholic District School Board.

In total, about one-half of Ontario's school boards are amalgamated. Bill 104 has created the Education Improvement Commission

(EIC) to oversee the amalgamation of boards across the province. The provincial body has seven commissioners and is co-chaired by former Minister of Education Dave Cooke and former chairperson of the Metropolitan Toronto School Board, Ann Vanstone.

Bill 104 also requires that school boards establish a Local Education Improvement Committee (LEIC) to work with the EIC.

A LEIC was established in June to co-ordinate the transition of the Board to the new Catholic District School Board.

The LEIC's mandate is set out by guidelines issued by the Education Improvement Commission.

Members of the LEIC believe that one of their most important responsibilities is to keep students, staff, parents, clergy, and ratepayers informed about the changes to take place.

As we move through this transition period, we are committed to communicating clearly and openly. We will get essential information to the public as quickly as possible, and will answer questions to the very best of our ability.

LEIC Mandate

The mandate of the LEIC is prescribed in the guidelines of the Education Improvement Commission (EIC). The LEIC is an advisory body whose major responsibility is to lay ground work for the establishment of the new Catholic District School Board for Peterborough, Victoria, Northumberland and Clarington.

In general, the LEIC is expected to develop transitional plans for the change, make recommendations to the EIC, and offer suggestions for the consideration of the new school board.

Some specific aspects of the LEIC mandate include proposing: (1) a basic organizational structure for the new board; (2) an interim budget for the new board; (3) an orientation session for new trustees.

LEIC Membership

The Board established the LEIC membership according to guidelines from the EIC. All voting members and alternates are trustees. The Director of Education serves as an advisor and co-ordinator.

School board telephone numbers are included should you wish to contact one of your local representatives. Members: Don Hemming (chairperson), (705) 292-847

24; Don Foltz (co-ordinator), (705) 748-4861; Jim Pilkington, (705) 324-5749; Kevin Sullivan, (705) 748-5428; Joe Whibbs, (705) 748-4870.

Meetings

To date, the LEIC has met on five occasions. All meetings were public except for some matters, such as those relating to personnel, which were discussed in private session. # Atom Hawks have rocky December

Hawks MVP: James Hanmon of the Havelock Hawks was selected as the team's Most Valuable Player during the 1997-98 season. Hanmon was named MVP after leading the Hawks to a championship victory over the Peterborough North Stars in the final game of the season. Hanmon was also named MVP of the 1997-98 season by the Ontario Hockey Federation.

Hawks continue winning streak

The Havelock OPP/Belmont Goffland Novice Hawks had a great December, as they won three more games and earned the "B" Championship during a tournament in Madoc.

In league action, on Dec. 28, Havelock defeated Ottonabee (in Hastings) 5-4.

Brandon Curry scored a hat trick and added two assists, while Hanmon scored two and had two assists. Chase Northup and Derek Pearce each picked up a pair of assists.

The previous day, Havelock travelled to Lakefield and beat the home team 7-2, with Hanmon notching four goals and one assist, Curry and Pearce each added a goal. Curry had three assists, and Northup earned one.

Kevin Darrington earned a shutout against Douro on Dec. 18, as his team skated to a 2-0 win. Notching Havelock's goals were Hanmon and Curry. Assisting were Hanmon and Pearce.

Tourney action...

Havelock competed in a Madoc tournament on Dec. 22, and defeated the host team in the "B" Championship.

The Hawks' first game saw them blank Brighton 7-0, with Darrington earning the shut out. Curry scored four goals and added one assist, followed by Hanmon with two goals and adding five assists. Pearce rounded out the scoring. Jesse Kennedy and Northup earned one assist each.

Bancroft defeated Havelock 5-3 in the Hawks' second game. Curry scored twice and Hanmon added the other. Hanmon also picked up two assists, and Miranda Radnor had one.

In the "B" Championship, Havelock hammered Madoc 10-2, with Hanmon leading the scoring for the Hawks with seven goals and two assists. Curry added the hat trick and six assists. Nick Holland earned one assist.

The Tweed Hawks are proving they can fly higher than the Havelock Hawks in recent Atom action.

Havelock paid a visit to Tweed on Dec. 17, and were defeated 12-5, with Alex Matthews playing a strong game for the Hawks, scoring four unassisted goals. Havelock's other goal was scored by Chris Best, assisted by Jamie Bowman.

Havelock participated in a tournament on Dec. 20 and again faced their arch rivals, the Tweed Hawks, in their first game.

This time, Tweed found Havelock very tough, and defeating them 4-0 was no easy task.

In Havelock's second game, they faced the Brighton Buzz and after another hard fought battle, were defeated 3-0. Although no goals were scored, the Hawks put forth an excellent effort.

The Hawks were back on the winning track when they played host to Peterborough's St. Johns. This game proved to be a high scoring affair, with the Hawks coming away 9-7 winners.

Alex Matthews set the flight pattern for the Hawks scoring four goals. Following the same pattern were Ivan King and Jamie Bowman with two each. Travis Wannamaker scored the final goal on a blast from the point.

Earning two assists each were Jeff Pugh and Travis Wannamaker. Adding singles were Jamie Bowman, Chris Best, Chris Mashinter, David and Dane Bauer.

The Atom Hawks stopped the Hastings Wolverines in their tracks on Dec. 28 during a game played on Havelock's home ice.

Alex Matthews, Dave Bauer and Jamie Bowman each scored hat tricks to pace Havelock in a 15-0 win. Steve Marsh earned the shut out.

Jeff Pugh and Chris Mashinter each added two goals, with singles going to David Bauer and Ryan Hebor. Mashinter had five assists, followed by Matthews with four, Hebor with three, while Pugh, Wannamaker, Dane Bauer, Ryan Noffke and Jamie Bowman added two each, and singles to Chris Best and David Bauer.

The Hawks hosted the Campbellford Colts on Dec.

30. After spotting the Colts three goals in the first, they closed the barn door and went on to win 6-4.

Alex Matthews had a hot stick for the Hawks, firing four straight goals to give Havelock the lead. Hawk Jamie Bowman scored the first and last goals of the game for Havelock.

Earning assists during the game were Dane Bauer with two, as well as Jeff Pugh, Chris Mashinter, Ryan Noffke and Matthews with one each.

The Hawks are recovering from shark bites after they were nipped 4-3 by the Peterborough St. Alphonsus Sharks during a home game on Jan. 4.

Havelock's first goal was scored by Jamie Bowman on a tip off shot from point by Jeff Pugh, who earned the assist. Chris Mashinter earned the second goal, assisted by Adam Darrington.

Bowman scored again late in the third to put the Hawks within reach for the win. He rushed on a lead pass Jeff Pugh. With some nifty puck work, Bowman fooled the Sharks goaltender. Travis Wannamaker also earned an assist on this goal. The Hawks pushed hard, but could not come up with an equalizer.

The Hawks next action is on Jan. 11 against Peterborough North Stars.

Peewees still playing hot

The Havelock Peewee Hawks earned a 2-1 win over Tweed on Dec. 28, in a fast paced, low penalty-minute game.

With 3:56 remaining in the second period, Havelock's Kris King, assisted by Nathaniel Sanderson, netted one. Only 30 seconds later, Matt Peters found a hole. Helping Peters were Joseph Curry and Dustin Whitmore.

As the third period neared completion, Tweed scored their only goal of the night, as neither team slowed until the final buzzer went.

Havelock and Marmora played a penalty-filled exhibition game on Dec. 27, with the Peewee Hawks winning 9-3.

Goals in the first period for Havelock were scored by Tyler Faux and Joseph Curry. Assists went to Justin Pollock, Robert Gilroy, Nathaniel Sanderson and Matt Peters.

In the second, Curry gained another goal and one assist, and Justin McConnell scored one. Other assists were by Gilroy, Pollock, and Denzel Whitmore.

Havelock tallied up five more goals in the third: Pollock, Curry (for his hat trick), Faux (unassisted), Peters and Kris King. Assists went to King, Gilroy (two), Denzel Whitmore (two), Pollock and Faux.

Douro faced off against Havelock on Dec. 18 for an end-to-end action game that ended with the Hawks winning a 5-4 decision.

Havelock started the scoring in the first as Tyler

Faux, assisted by Peters and Sanderson, scored. Kris King, assisted by Chris Maxwell and Curry, scored Havelock's second, in the first, before Douro scored their first two of the game.

Back to back goals opened the second period with Havelock's comeback by King - assisted by Curry and Maxwell.

Douro was the first to score in the third, but Hawks just didn't quit. King scored again to complete his hat trick, assisted by Denzel Whitmore and Curry. Dustin Whitmore found a hole at the six minute mark, assisted by King and Sanderson.

Steve Nurse made an awesome save on a breakaway to secure the Hawks' 4 win.

Each winter snowmobilers ask where their OFSC Trail Permit goes and how it improves the trails they ride. It's no wonder they're curious. They've put out another hundred bucks, or so, for the privilege of using the trails, so they feel a vested interest. But what are they buying?

After all, most riders never see the behind-the-scenes effort that reproduces Ontario's 49,000 kilometre trail system each winter. It's not surprising. Almost 90% of this enormous network is invisible, located in the back country away from people and towns. So unless you spot a trail where it accesses your town or intersects with a road, it's unlikely that you'll ever be aware of the existence of snowmobile trails nearby. It's all a whole trail system miraculously reappears each season, perhaps crafted by Santa. Elsewhere in their spare time between stints in the workshop.

In fact, an army of club volunteers swarms into the hinterlands each fall, taking the owners of yore from trail opening preparations to long weeks of grooming and maintenance. Snowmobile clubs spend about $20 million annually to make our provincial trail system happen. So much so that it may appear as if by chance it's a very expensive one indeed!

Which answers part of the question about where your permit money goes: under Ontario's User Pay System, each individual snowmobiler shares a small portion of this $20 million cost for trail operations. But the total revenues from the almost 111,000 Trail Permits sold last year is only about $10 million - half of the trail network's annual operating cost. So where does the other $10 million come from?

In a word: volunteers. Unlike some provinces and states, Ontario's snowmobile trail operations are not government funded. So volunteer labour - fundraising and material donations make up the $10 million snowmobilers, short-hand each season. From an investment perspective, snowmobilers who buy Trail Permits are getting two dollars of value back for each dollar they invest. Combined with unlimited access to world class trails, that's a better deal than any blue-chip stock!

Another part of the where does your money go answer is: to the club you buy your Permit from. On average, about 75% of your Permit investment stays in your home club's hands to help fund local trail operations. So a large portion of your Permit fee directly improves the trails you ride most often. You can quickly appreciate the importance of buying where you ride.

Remember that snowmobile clubs are non-profit entities, mandated to spend all of their Permit income on trail-related work. These annual expenses include the capital cost of buying or servicing skis on, large grooming equipment ($100,000 and up, per unit), maintenance and repairs, gas, oil and parts; groomer wages; insurance on club property and volunteers; trail prep such as building, grading and bridging; stakes and intersection boards; trail maps, etc. you get the idea.

The annual cost per kilometre of trail operations can run from $125 to $400 depending on season length and traffic. Do the math of your Permit dollars improve your trails? You bet.

Meanwhile, the other 25% of your permit fee goes to the OFSC to help fund provincial trails and clubs in need. Over $1.3 million pays for the Trail Liability Insurance that keeps trails open by protecting clubs and landowners; a Trail Development Fund to assist clubs with the acquisition of capital equipment and bridges; an emergency fund and special payments to clubs in TOP Trails; subsidized signage; trails manuals; and a host of other services designed to support club efforts on your behalf. Does this improve your trails too? For sure.

So User Pay makes great trails for you. It must be working because it's the system of choice in every province with groomed trails to brag about. So that's where your money goes, plain and simple. Now stop worrying about it and get riding.

Until next time, remember to SkiSmart! Ride Safe! Ride Sober. For more snowmobiling information, contact the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs (OFSC) at (705) 739-7669 or check out www.ofsc.on.ca an important archaeological site was recently discovered. Both of these events have been written up for the book, which also has a index of names.

When the committee first began its research, press releases were sent to various nearby communities inviting former residents to participate by sending old photographs and materials for the book.

When people responded generously to this request, the book evolved into two parts: a history researched by the committee and one donated by the community.

The family stories and reminiscing give a vivid picture of life over the last 200 years from pioneer life in the early 1800s to posts at refugees in the 1950s.

The title of the book reflects these varied recollections.

tions and in particular the narrative by Susan B. Greeley, the daughter of Aaron Greeley who surveyed the township in 1796. A quotation from her memoirs appear as the frontispiece.

The book costs $35 including GST. Canadian readers must add $5 to cover shipping and handling. For U.S. buyers, the cost is an added $8. Orders may be sent to: Haldimand's History Committee, c/o Haldimand Township Municipal Office, P.O. Box 70, Grafton, Ont., K0K 2G0.

MEMORIALS

GREENHALGH, CARRIE In loving memory of our daughter, Carrie Greenhalgh, who passed January 2, 1997. God saw she was getting And a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around her. And whispered "Come home."

Although we loved her dearly, We could not make her stay. Her golden heart still beating. Hard working hands to rest. God took her from this earth. To prove He only takes the best. Our hearts now ache with sadness. And secret tears still flow. What it meant to lose you. No one will ever know. We miss you, Carrie, And loved, and remembered Grandma and Grandpa.

HOLMES - In loving memory of our mother, Jessie Holmes, Jan. 4, 1997; sister, Warrnamaker, January 18, 1997; and father Godwin, March 1977. Gone but not forgotten. Thornton. (1-30-1)

GERRY SALMERS - In memory of my dear husband, father, grandfather and grandfather, whom God took to Heaven Jan. 9th, 1997. No one knows how much I miss you.

As the days and months go by, Since God called you up to Heaven, To that place beyond the stars, No one knows how much I suffer.

My sorrow and my pain, Knowing I shall never see you here on this earth again, But whom God has joined together, Death can never separate. And I know some day I'll see you, dear. Behind God's Heavenly gate. And I pray, my dear husband, When I cross that bridge, That God will join us again. Together, side by side. We all miss you, dear Dorothy and families.

Hornets take "C" title at pee wee tourney

Millbrook - Norwood's Century Roofing pee wee Hornets clipped Uxbridge 4-1 to take the "C" title at the annual Millbrook tourney.

The Hornets weren't quite up to meeting the Newmarket Redmen in the opener going down to a 7-1 defeat. But they rebounded in their second match knocking off Kingston 3-1 with goals going to Alex Graham, J.J. Searle and Brent Begg.

Assists went to Begg, Searle and Dan garden.

In the title match against Uxbridge, Norwood came up big with Graham, Tyler Heffernan, Adam Crawford and William Ridgeway ripping the twine with goals. Matt Hiltz paced the team with two assists with single helpers going to Heffernan, Garden, Graham, Begg and Zak Denike.

Overtime: Before the holiday season got underway the Hornets took on the Otonabee Wolves in Keene and came home with a 5-1 win. The Wolves James Rossi opened the scoring in the first period but Norwood answered back one minute later when Ridgeway popped one in, assisted by Kyle Townsend and Searle. Norwood moved ahead in the second with a fine solo effort by Heffernan. The third frame belonged to Norwood with two goals going to Searle and a single from Crawford. Assists went to Ridgeway, Ryan McGowan and Mike Hickey. Goalie Mike Noffke was in fine form keeping the Hornets in the game through all three periods...The Hornets enjoyed a three day break for Christmas and were back at the rink Dec. 28 for an exhibition match against the Madoc Wildcats. Their first game of 1998 was against the Tweed Hawks on Jan. 2.

Junior tykes are red hot

Three more wins for young stars

Norwood - Norwood's Centennial Pharmacy/Birdsall Beach Trailer Park junior tyke Hornets have added three more wins to their seasonal collection.

The young squad knocked off the Douro Dukes 6-1 on Dec. 23 then won the Dec. 30 rematch 3-1. They started off the 1998 portion of their schedule with an impressive 10-1 win over Grafton.

Steven Walsh had the hot stick against the Dukes firing in four goals in their 6-1 win while Scott Sadlier and Mark Butten fired in solo markers.

Walsh gave the Dukes fits in the Dec. 30 contest slapping in a pair of goals with Matthew Nelson adding the other Norwood goal. Jacob O'Grady replied for Douro.

The Hornets got balanced offence in their victory over Grafton with two goal outings from Steven Gerow, Andrew Eggleton, Bitten and Walsh. Michael Loucks and Sadlier added goals as well. Matthew Nelson looked like Marty Brodeur in net for Norwood.

Also playing a strong game for the victors were Casey Fleming, Dalton Charlebois, Giles Hall, Mike Kloosterman, Matthew Zerner, Brandon Kingston and Scott Foss.

The young Gretzkys are preparing for their first tourney of the year Jan. 17 in Keene. Stay tuned for highlights.

Could save lives of snowmobilers Signs and trail markers serve a valuable purpose

Editor's Note: The Peavey Boom River Race is one of the many snowmobile clubs in Ontario concerned with the theft of trail signs and the threat it poses to the lives of snowmobile riders. Their members hope the article below will help get the message out to the public about the importance of realizing the role signs play in the safety of riders.

Many snowmobilers take trail signage for granted. After all, our roads and highways are automatically signed by municipalities or the Ministry of Transportation and no one thinks twice about it.

Well, think again!

As any snowmobiler knows, trail signs are crucial to a safe, enjoyable, worry-free ride. That's why snowmobile clubs and the OFSC undertake massive signage programs each season—to make rides better and to avoid snowmobiling accidents. So why does it have to be such a hassle for clubs?

Snowmobile clubs will tell you that one of their costliest annual expenses is signage. Each season, Ontario snowmobile clubs purchase thousands of reflective signs. Generally, these signs fall into broad categories: safety and information.

These signs, many of which cost $6 or more, are placed on snowmobile trails by club volunteers according to guidelines prescribed in the OFSC Sign Standards Manual. They are expected to have a life expectancy of seven years or more. Many are put up at the start of each season and taken down at the end by club volunteers.

Many of the new signs are purchased to fulfill a new need identified by clubs or snowmobilers during the previous season. Examples would be where a new trail is opened, or an existing trail re-routed, or a new hazard occurs. Other new signs are bought to replace old ones that have outlived their usefulness or life expectancy. But too many of these costly new signs are replacements for those that have been stolen or damaged.

Sign theft is an ongoing or unnecessary expense to snowmobile clubs. For some reason, a few people take trail signs for souvenirs. Sometimes there is no motive but vandalism. In either case, the result of this senseless act is that the safety and enjoyment of other riders is placed in jeopardy. Unfortunately, STOP signs seem to be a favourite target of sign snappers, so even lives are placed in great danger by these thieves.

Snowmobilers blaze trail

"Many of their members have been participating in the event since 1975. Those individuals have made an impact on the lives of some very special kids."

Since its inception, Snowarama has raised over $13 million for the Easter Seal Society, Ontario. In 1998, organizers hope to raise $550,000.

The enthusiastic support of OFSC members for Easter Seal kids is only matched by their love of the sport. Snowmobilers are drawn to the event by the opportunity to ride carefully groomed trails through some of Ontario's most spectacular winter playgrounds. In addition to the pleasure of exploring fabulous trails that in some cases extend over 100 miles, participants are eligible to win great fundraising incentive prizes.

The Easter Seal Society, Ontario, provides essential services and programs to children with physical disabilities and their families through integrated preschool programs, community support, financial assistance for equipment, camps, parent support programs and funding for research.

For more information about Snowarama events call 1-800-461-3391.

Time Limits on Appeals

to the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board of Ontario

Legislative changes taking effect on January 1, 1998, place a time limit on workers and employers right to appeal decisions of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board (WSIB) formerly the Workers' Compensation Board (WCB).

- There is a 30 day time limit on appealing a Board decision about a Return to Work or a Labour Market Re-entry plan made on or after January 1, 1998.
- There is a six month time limit on appealing any other Board decision made on or after January 1, 1998.

Retroactive Time Limits on decisions made before January 1, 1998

- The 30 day time limit applies to any Board decision on Return to Work or Labour Market Re-entry plans made before January 1, 1998. The 30 day window for these appeals runs from January 1, 1998 to January 31, 1998.
- The six month time limit on appeals applies to any other decisions made before January 1, 1998. The six month window for appeals of decisions made prior to January 1, 1998 is between January 1, 1998 and June 30, 1998.

To appeal a decision made prior to January 1, 1998, you must notify the Board in writing at 200 Front Street West, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 3J1.

Workplace Safety and Insurance Appeals Tribunal

Appeals of the Board's final decisions can be made to the Workplace Safety and Insurance Appeals Tribunal (WSIAT). Under the new legislation, there is also a time limit on appeals to the tribunal — six months after the final decision of the Board. The Tribunal has the authority to reconsider its own decisions and extend the period for appeals.

Attention Widows and Widowers

whose spouses died of workplace injury or disease in Ontario, and who subsequently married or remarried prior to April 1, 1985

On January 1, 1998, Ontario will have a new Workplace Safety and Insurance Board (WSIB) with new legislation, replacing the Workers' Compensation Board. This new legislation restores survivors' benefits to widows and widowers, including common-law spouses who married or remarried prior to April 1, 1985 and who were then cut off survivors' benefits. The new Act states: "Any person whose benefits were terminated for reason of marriage or remarriage under subsection 36(2) or 37(1) of the Workers' Compensation Act, as it read on March 31, 1985, may apply to the Board for a reinstatement of benefits, and the Board shall reinstate benefits, as of April 1, 1985."

To have benefits reinstated you must provide the WSIB with specific information showing that you are eligible. For more details please call or write to: Lina Capone (416) 344-2194 or 1-800-465-9646, Manager, Spousal Benefits Reinstatement, Workplace Safety and Insurance Board, 200 Front Street West, 4th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 3J1.

Claiming Benefits

from the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board of Ontario

Legislative changes taking effect on January 1, 1998 require workers to claim benefits under the insurance plan of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board, formerly the Workers' Compensation Board.

- Workers who wish to claim benefits for a work-related injury or disease on or after January 1, 1998 must now file a claim for benefits as soon as possible. Workers must apply within six months of the injury or disease. The Board may permit a claim after six months if it considers it just to do so.
- When they file their claims, workers must also provide written consent to the release of functional abilities information to their employers. Employers and workers will use this information supplied by the treating health professional solely for returning workers to work early and safely.
- Workers should claim benefits and sign consent on the Employer Report of Injury/Disease Form 7, if possible. Otherwise, they should promptly submit a signed Form 6 sent to them by the Board and give a copy to their employers.
- Failure to claim and consent could result in workers not being provided benefits under the insurance plan.

Our Novices took to the ice on Dec. 20 in pre-holiday action, falling 7-0 to visiting Tweed. Their home tournament on Dec. 22 featured a 17-2 loss to Campbellford in Game 1, scoring for our Wildcats were Jarrod Cassidy, assisted by Rob Blakely and Colby Bird assisted by Cody Chambers. Game 2 for our Novices featured a narrow win over Napanee, 5-4. Jarrod Cassidy recorded a hatrick, with a pair of goals for Cody Chambers and Colby Bird, while Jarrod recorded a pair of assists and a single Robert Blakely.

Exhibition action following the Novice tournament saw our Pee-wee Wildcats host Belleville. Tyler Gordon opened the scoring for the home team with an unassisted marker, half a minute into the first. Mike

Preston hiked the score to 2-0 with an assist from Jim Meraw with two and a half minutes left in period one, and before the close of the first, Belleville scored a pair within 22 seconds of each other, to close the first in a 2-2 tie. Madoc bettered Belleville three goals to one in the second period with Mark Boyle, Josh Leaver and Rob Reynolds posting markers, a pair of assists for Tyler Gordon, singles for Mark Boyle and Caleb Atkinson. Belleville posted a pair of goals in third period play, while Caleb Atkinson popped in the winner for our Wildcats with an assist by Rob Reynolds for the 6-5 victory.

On Dec. 27, our Novices were shut-out 8-0 by visiting Deseronto, but our Atom B's fared much better against visiting Frankford. The Huskies opened the scoring with less than two minutes away in the first, but our Wildcats roared back with goals by Rob Blakely and Travis Gordon. Will Dawes, Brad McCann, Mike McCullough and Jason Lutka posted assists. A goal for each team in second period play saw a Madoc marker for Travis Gordon assisted by Will Dawes, to close out the second with the home team leading 3-2. With a little over a minute gone in period three Rob Blakely scored for the Wildcats, assisted by Will Dawes. The Huskies managed to score one in the third, as our Wildcats took the game 4-3.

Dec. 29 featured plenty of post-Christmas action with our Bantam tournament. Brighton gave our Wildcats a run for their money in Game 1 action. The visitors posted the first marker of the game with one second left on the clock in the first, but period two belonged to our host Wildcats, Mike McCann and Duke Cassidy on assists from Jason Wilson, Rob Curtis, T.J. Tomlinson and Adam Gray. The third period was a defensive battle with neither team scoring, giving our Bantams a 2-1 win. Norwood provided the competition for our second tournament game. The visitors drew first blood halfway through the first, but Jason Wilson answered back with a home team goal, assisted by Rob Curtis, Mike McCann. Norwood regained the lead with a goal scored with four seconds left on the clock in first period play. Thomas Nickle scored the lone goal in second period action on an assist from Tyler Gordon to tie the match. Third period scoring was solely for the home team, with Jason Wilson scoring the winner, assisted by Jesse Cassidy and Jesse captured the insurance marker assisted by Jason. The A final pitted our Wildcats against the Prince Edward County Kings. The County opened the scoring midway through the first, holding Madoc scoreless. Second period play was Madoc all the way with two goals scored seven seconds apart, the first by Jesse Cassidy, assisted by Rob Curtis and the second by Rob, assisted by Mike McCann and Jason Wilson. Third period action was scoreless for both sides and our Cats took the championship with a 2-1 win.

Norwood took a break from their holidays for an exhibition match with our Pee-wees following the Bantam tournament. The visitors posted a 10-7 win. Josh Leaver had a super game with four goals and on assist, a pair of goals for Boyle and Tyler Gordon. Tyler posted three assists and a pair for Mark a single for Greg Smith. The first game of featured our Atom A league action against Marmora Stars. Br Verina opened the sc with the first and only in the first period, on assist by Anthony Halli. Second period play saw only one goal, by Shawn Trotter, on assist from Brer Verina. Third period action opened with an unassisted goal, scored by Anthony Halliday, five minutes 14 seconds into the period. Marmora answered back seconds later, with their marker of the game. A for goal at the 6:33 mark the third closed the gap 2 Madoc, but with 13 seconds left in the game Jonathan McCann popped in the insurance goal, assisted by B Robinson and L Cassidy to clinch the match as a 4-2 Wildcat win.

A New Year's Tale From Shiloh Farm

by Chris Bertelsen

The Right Rev. Phipps, moderator of the United Church certainly has stirred up a hornets nest by his statements questioning the Virgin Birth and the divinity of Christ. Rev. Phipps and many other theologians have no doubt read the authoritative work of the Australian biblical scholar Barbara Thiering Jesus and the Dead Sea Scrolls. In it she states that Jesus was born of the virgin Mary but it was called that because that was what the Jews of the Essenes called it when a child was conceived in between the two marriage ceremonies required by them. The Essenes were the very orthodox Jewish sect to which Joseph and Mary belonged. There was a two year celibate wait between marriages. For this reason there were some who considered him born illegitimately and felt that his rights as heir to the throne should fall to his younger brother James. It continued to cause political strife throughout most of Jesus' life. The Right Rev. Phipps is probably also familiar with the work of the Jesus Seminar, a think tank of biblical scholars and theologians which has been in operation for decades and which among other things has concluded that the sayings of Jesus only 18 per cent can in fact be attributed to him. Thiering claims (with apparent documented authority) that Jesus was given poison while on the cross. Because he was considered already dead his bones were not broken and he was laid to rest in a cave where he was administered large quantities of Myrrh and Aloe juice. These purged him and he rose to live again in the flesh. His appearances were real and he set up his church appointing Peter as his successor thus establishing the infallible line of Popes. What I found particularly interesting is the description of Jesus evicting the money changers from the temple. This he did because he opposed the practice established by King Herod of new converts to Judaism having to pay a half-shekel for membership. He also accepted payment in lieu of the traditional sacrifice of animals. The payment of sacrifice was to ensure salvation. Jesus felt that salvation was by the grace of merciful loving God. After the death of Jesus succeeding Popes could not resist the cash cow and re-instituted the practice in the form of Indulgences. It was this which primarily caused Luther to break with the Church. Had they followed Jesus' example the Christian Church would very likely have remained united.

Whatever the truth any of this is, it does not take away from our celebration of the birth of a truly remarkable being, a Manifestation of God who taught us that God was Love and that by His Grace we shall be saved. After all, there is only one God, the one who created all humans in His image. Therefore we are all His children and I believe that this loving and merciful God will accept all who walk in His ways keeping His Commandments one of which is Thou Shall Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself. A blessed New Year to one and all.

DETAIL DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION

THE STUDY

In 1994, the Ministry of Transportation completed a Project Appraisal Report for the area of Highway 62 from 300m north of Highway 7 (at Madoc) to 3.7km south of the Madoc/Tudor Township Line as shown on the key plan below. This project is now proceeding to the design phase.

The purpose of the project is to improve the highway alignment, widen the pavement to current standards, improve the riding quality by resurfacing, correct deficient drainage facilities and update the roadside features to current standards.

The project will proceed to construction, as funds become available.

THE PROCESS

This study follows a Class Environmental Assessment process, approved for Highway projects of this type. Upon completion of the study, an Environmental Study Report will be available for public review and comment. Another public notice will be published at that time. There is an opportunity at any time during the Provincial Highways' Class Environmental Assessment process for public input. If you feel that after consulting with MTO and McCormick Rankin staff, that serious environmental concerns remain unresolved, it is your right to request that the project be subject to an Individual Environmental Assessment. The decision rests with the Minister of the Environment.

An open house format Public Information Centre to allow the public to review the proposed detailed design will be held on:

Date: Wednesday, January 14, 1998
Time: 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Location: Madoc Township Office
15651 Highway 62, Madoc

Ministry and McCormick Rankin staff will be present to discuss the study, answer questions and receive your comments.

Bylaw to make former Huntingdon office new home for Centre Hastings being prepared

by Jeff Wilson

The new municipality of Centre Hastings Township took a step closer to settling on a single location for its municipal office.

During a regular council meeting held on Wednesday at the former Huntingdon Township hall, council voted 3-2, in a recorded vote, in favor of requesting the Clerk prepare a bylaw that will move all administrative staff and materials into the former Huntingdon Township municipal office. The bylaw will be passed at the next regular council meeting to be held on Tuesday, Jan. 27 at the former village municipal office, beginning at 7 p.m.

Reeve Tom Deline reminded fellow council members that they had promised the Madoc and District Chamber of Commerce he given 10 days notice prior to a final decision being made on the location of the municipal office. The time between the passage of the resolution and the next council meeting, when the bylaw will come before council, is 13 days.

The vote was divided down former municipal lines, with the three former Huntingdon Township council members voting in favor, and the two former village council members voting against the resolution.

A couple of members of the public who were in attendance at the meeting, asked council members if this type of divisiveness will continue during this term of council.

Deline responded that he felt that council would work together.

Councillor Larry Mitz stated that he personally believes in "conciliation and compromise" and regretted that the municipal office location decision came down to former Huntingdon council members voting against former Madoc council members.

Councillor, Crichton

Harrop said he doesn't hold grudges and will work to make this decision benefit the whole municipality.

Councillor Dave Schulz had asked that the issue be placed on the council agenda prior to the meeting. When the issue came up for discussion, Schulz stated that members had been "sitting on the fence long enough" and it was time that a decision on a location for a municipal office be made.

Mitz agreed saying that the municipality could not properly operate with two members of the administrative staff in one office and two other administrative staff members in another office.

During the discussion of the resolution, Deline said he had a concern of the cost factor involved with moving into the former Huntingdon Township municipal office, stating he make choke on those words later.

Mitz responded that it was his opinion, there would be no need for renovations and so there would be no money spent on moving the staff and materials down into the office in Ivanhoe.

Deline also raised his personal concern over a possible water quality issue, specifically sulphur content in the water source.

Schulz responded that the health unit tested the water and declared it safe for consumption.

Deline told members of the public that the move into one municipal office could take between three to six months to complete. Both Schulz and Mitz disagreed with that time frame, feeling the move could be completed in a much shorter span of time.

Anything Goes sold out every night

by C.L. Marriot

Madoc—Bravo to the 32 performers, 6 musicians, and 4 stage hands, who, despite ice storm '98, presented the musical "Anything Goes" last weekend at CHSS (Centre Hastings Secondary School). The confidence and production values executed by these tri-town teenagers exceeded all expectations. The more than 800 people, who travelled through all kinds of weather to see the show, marvelled at the parade of talent.

Becky Fleming, grade 12 student, played the flamboyant Reno Sweeney. The maturity of her voice offered up lovely tones and her phrasing was impeccable. Fleming's confidence and stage presence pulled the audience into her performance, as she imbued seven songs with the dixie land-swing of the era. If Fleming desires a singing career she has all the equipment.

Jason MacArthur, grade 11 student, played Billy the romantic lead with confidence and an understated charm. Jason's interaction with fellow actors was natural as his voice glided through the solos and duets. His performance was a pleasure.

Amy Hagerman, an OAC student, blended character and voice together into her role as the object of "Billy's" affections. Hersweet, soft voice was always on key and her songs well executed.

To the delight of everyone, Moonface Martin, played by grade 10 student Jesse Gottlieb-Jacob, relaxed the audience with his confidence. He pushed his character as far as needed to keep everyone laughing. The Groucho Marx walk, wide grin, one-liners and the solo "Be like a Bluebird", combined into an excellent performance.

Laura Matthews, grade 11 student, played Bonnie Mooney's co-conspirator. With a swagger and a hip swing she portrayed her character clearly. Matthews sang the opening night—first act without a mic, and projected to the back of the room with ease.

Sir Evelyn Oakley, played by veteran drama student Johnathon Sanders, was a comic delight. Sanders' physical antics, a 1930s bathing suit scene, an affected accent and verbal flourishes such as "cherbye" were integral to the humour of the production.

Katrina Kovach, grade 10 student, was Evelyn's overbearing mother. The Purser, or Becky Leghorn, an OAC student, played her character with authority. David Badgley, a grade 10 student, played the tipsy near-sighted Elisha J. Whitney, selling purser with panache. All three obviously had fun with their parts and "made the characters their own."

The camaraderie of the cast in "Blow, Gabriel Blow" was infectious. The quiet co-ordination, as the teenage cast filed on-stage during the first verses of "Anything Goes", was surprising and commendable.

The huge production could not have been mounted without discipline and co-ordination, in the person of OAC student Katherine Kline. As the stage manager, her teachers report "she was invaluable."

The 40-year-old lighting board was mastered, by the only grade 9 student in the production, Ace Piton.

The entire cast deserved and received kudos as the audience rose from their seats at the end of each and every performance.

The cast took on much more than just acting and singing, an accomplishment in itself. It's obvious by the program they were responsible for sets, costumes, hair and make-up, props and publicity.

The production could not have achieved its success without the group of non-drama students that volunteered their time and energy. The Pit Band included assistant music director and chorus member, Tara Harrison, an OAC student, Brenda Beatty, Adam Reeves, Jonathan Beer, Kristen Spencer and Angela McKewen. The carpenters, supplied from the tech course, were Steven Countryman, Tom McFarlane, Day Driskle and Justin Harlan. The volunteer stage crew were Scott McCrorie, Nathan Reeves and Cas Clarke.

The performance was a first for CHSS and the result of a pilot-course launched by Drama teacher Bill Piton last spring. Piton says he was "very lucky" to have had Music teacher Kim Coulson come on board in the fall. The cast began work for two periods a day and earned two credits: a combination of vocal music, drama or co-op.

The question on everyone's lips now is "What is the next production?"

Blavo!

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

The year 1997 has been a year of change for a large number of residents of our local community.

A group of people concerned about the plight of others, formed a non-profit organization, known as the Huntingdon People Helping People. This organization intends to operate all 12 months of the year in order to assist residents in need of the newly formed municipality of Centre Hastings.

We appealed for donations from local residents, business and industry so that we would be able to provide material response to those requiring assistance during the Christmas season. The response was both overwhelming and heart warming.

Our sincere thanks and appreciation goes to all of you for making this our first venture, such a success. We ask for your continued support throughout the year.

Wishing you all the best in '98.

Sincerely,
Huntingdon People

Quinte Crime Stoppers

How would you like to wake up in the middle of the night with a stranger standing over your bed? That is exactly what happened to a young female Monday night and Quinte Crime Stoppers is asking for your help in identifying and locating the man responsible for this home invasion and another break-in on Wilson Road in Huntingdon Township.

Madoc OPP report that on Monday night, Jan. 5 around 11:30 p.m., a male broke into the home and after taking a few small items entered one of the bedrooms where a female was sleeping. The victim woke up and started to scream. The girl's mother ran to her aid and confronted the suspect, who then casually walked out of the house.

The suspect is described as a 20 to 30-year-old male, about 5' 8" tall, approximately 160 lbs., with a dark moustache, goatee and dark collar length hair. He fled the scene in a dark colored, older model car.

A second residence was also broken into on the same street sometime that night.

Later that night, around 2 a.m., two males were seen in a driveway on Highway 62, attempting to take gasoline from a truck. They fled in large maroon Chevrolet.

The OPP tracked the vehicle to a house just south of Slab Street off Highway 62, where they stole a red 1980 GMC three-quarter ton pick-up truck bearing Ontario licence plate number 790 9A1, and are still at large.

Help Crime Stoppers help your community. If you know these suspects or anything about these break-ins, give Crime Stoppers a call at 1-800-222-TIPS. You never have to reveal your identity or testify in court. Your anonymity is guaranteed and you could be entitled to a cash reward if your tip leads to an arrest.

Tai Chi classes coming to Madoc

Tai Chi classes will be offered in Madoc beginning on Jan. 20. The classes, which run from 7 to 8 p.m., will be held at Centre Hastings Secondary School, in room 120, and will be taught by instructor Greg Magwood.

Magwood has been studying martial arts and movement since 1988. He actively teaches Tai Chi and Chi Kung and has black belts in both Karate and Jiu Jitsu. Greg has travelled to Thailand to live and study at Wat Nanachat Forest Monastery in Bung Waivillage. He has recently returned from Iravandrum in Kerala South India, where he studied Kalarippayattu (ancient martial art of South India) under C.V. Govindankutty Nair Gurukkal at the C.V.N. Kalari. When not teaching Greg likes to hide in Cooper, in a house built of straw.

Tai Chi is the ancient Chinese martial art of movement for health and long life. It is a slow meditative form of exercise developed over many years to help maintain youth and flexibility in body and mind. It incorporates different postures that are linked together in what are called sets. The postures are based on the movements of animals and nature. As the pace of modern life speeds up, Tai Chi gives us a chance to slow down and gain an important sense of objectivity. It allows the mind to become focused, enabling one to make decisions with a clear mind and relaxed body.

A typical session begins with gentle warm-ups, controlled breathing and follows into some simple exercises like six healing breaths, or seven star boxing. From the warm-up the class moves into the practice of the Yang style postures and forms. Each student is encouraged to move at their own individual pace. There is no pressure to "keep up with the class". Tai Chi is an individual practise the class is designed to allow one to challenge one's self on one's own terms while maintaining a structure. The class ends with gentle cool downs and conversation.

For more information call Greg Magwood at (613) 473-1718 or leave a message at (613) 961-0036.

VON Week celebrated

The Hastings, Northumberland, Prince Edward branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses (HNPVON) will be celebrating VON Week in Canada, Jan. 18-24.

"We are excited about the future," said Alan Cavell, executive director of the HNPVON, adding, "the VON now has 100 years of service under its belt and we look forward to responding to Canada's health care needs for the next 100 years. Locally, VON has been serving this community since 1917."

To commemorate this special week, the VON flag will be raised at Belleville City Hall, and Mayor Ross McDougall has officially proclaimed VON Week in Belleville.

Councils will likewise in Picton, Campbellford, Quinte West and Bancroft. VON displays were also featured at the Quinte Mall on Jan. 15 & 16.

According to Cavell, one of the features that distinguishes "VON from other nursing agencies, is that any profits raised from their for-profit ventures are put back into charitable work.

"One area of community health we are currently looking at is women's health. Women have unique health care needs and we are currently working with a community-based committee to determine the need for a Women's Wellness Centre based in Quinte West," explained Cavell, adding, "as community health care needs change, the VON will be there to respond to those needs."

Busy time in Cordova Mines

by Rose Scollick
Cordova correspondent

Due to inclement weather, the Cordova Mines Recreation Association meeting was cancelled and re-scheduled for last Monday with 19 members in attendance. It's so comfortable in our new room.

Rock 'N Rail Festival representative Barbara Stocking was guest speaker, giving us an update on preparations, their hopes and participation for all quarters. Further discussion was table until a joint meeting with the Library Association on Jan. 20.

The Recreation Management Committee made several recommendations: a young persons' dance was approved with supervision; a donation of $75 was made to the Cordova Mines Children's Craft Club; a family sleigh ride and fun day was put forward, weather permitting.

The Recreation Association has received a $100 donation from the Cordova Mines Free Methodist Church; a $500 donation from the Havelock Legion, Br. 389; and a $700 donation from the Havelock Lions Club to complete the kitchen.

Many thanks to all for your generosity toward our Kitchen and Building Fund. A committee of Jeff Howie, Doug and Doris Caverly are to take immediate steps in designing and furnishing the kitchen.

Elected officers for 1998 are: President - Lisa Howie; Vice-president - Ray Beckford; Secretary -

Shirley Pressick; Treasurer - Doug Caverly and Directors - Karen Knoll and Shirley Graham.

Thank you all for accepting these positions for another year. As this is our initial year of having a Recreation Room, if we step on your toes, or overlook something that you consider important, please let us know.

Note to all: The Recreation Room is available for renting, the kitchen privileges to follow. If you are interested in joining or making up morning, afternoon or evening activities, please contact Shirley Graham at 705-778-3018. She will help co-ordinate these activities.

I understand we've already booked several. We need people who will organize cards, games, or whatever might interest you, we will try and accommodate.

The first meeting of the Cordova Mines Library Association for 1998 got underway in the Recreation Room with 12 members present. Minutes of the last meeting and treasurer's report were read and approved.

The November 50/50 draw was won by Pauline Wilkinson, and the December draw by her husband, Bob; both donated their winnings back to the library. Thanks, Pauline and Bob.

The Cordova Recreation Association and the Library Association are holding a joint meeting on Jan. 20 at 7 p.m. to discuss suggestions put forth by Barbara Stocking.

Fundraising for the library, after much discussion, has been reduced to three endeavours a year in May, September and October. As these events draw near, more information will be available.

Old business was cleared up and a lengthy discussion tossed around ideas for a program for the children during the March Break.

The 1998 Executive for the Library Association is as follows: President - Win Beckford; Vice-President - Joanne Roberts; Secretary - Marilyn Wren; Treasurer - Karen Knoll; Directors - Marg Harris and Delores Steinburg.

Library meetings have been changed to 1 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month. See you then.

Trailer technology has paved snowmobile science. Apart from accommodating wider ski stances, today's trailers cope with heavier loads, greater distances, rougher conditions and continuing owner neglect. According to Mark Embury of Hyland Ltd., one of Ontario's leading recreational trailer manufacturers, trailers suffer most from misuse. Lack of motion, condensation and encrusted dirt combine to seize bearings, deflate tires, and rust undercarriages during outdoor storage. That most of us abandon our trailers at winter's end, parking them without any maintenance, only aggravates the problem.

Summer storage preparations include power washing and bearing repacking. Cover the tires with plastic and park out of direct sunlight to avoid damaging rubber. Rest each tire on a board to avoid prolonged ground contact. Lubricate the hitch and shock mechanism. Lock the hitch and if possible, chain the trailer to a tree for security.

Be ready for winter, inflate the tires to the specifications on the side of the tire. Repack the bearings to eliminate any residual moisture build up. Check all undercarriage nuts and bolts and ensure that lights are functioning properly. Re-lube the hitch and shock mechanisms. When not towing, I place a cover over the greased hitch ball, and protect the wiring harness plugs from deterioration by plugging in spare male and female ends.

For normal mileage, this seasonal maintenance should suffice. But add grease to the bearings periodically and repack them every 3,000 to 4,000 kilometres. Power wash the unit after each journey to remove grit and grime. And don't back into a cold snowbank with trailer bearings heated from a long drive.

For this winter, I was after an enclosed trailer. I'd spent too much time fiddling with covers, tie downs and straps on my open bed. I was fed up with leaning against a rock mechanism and soiling my clothes. I'd disappeared all my dry suits. Most of all, the guys with enclosed trailers were always loaded and gone before me. But I wasn't prepared to buy a turbo diesel for towing. That's why I settled on a Hyland enclosed trailer. Its moulded fiberglass cover looks aerodynamic. We towed a streamlined Hyland all the way to Quebec last season without even knowing it was there! The cover fits snugly and a shock-assisted locking mechanism keeps it all raised for loading. And I loved being able to load up at night under the interior lights. All factors considered, especially the upwards of 7,500 kilometres I've been known to trailer in a season, Hyland impressed me as good value from a company who knows trailers and stands behind their product. In trailers book, you get what you pay for.

Protected tail lights and a smooth rear loading edge that wouldn't catch my plastic skis were high on my wish list, along with certain other amenities. A tongue jack eliminated lifting the weight of two sleds onto the ball. The jack's wheel ended the need to back up as accurately. Now I simply roll the trailer tongue to the vehicle hitch and compensate for my steering impressions. Bearing buddies facilitate greasing, and a spare tire provides peace of mind. I wanted a solid, durable trailer constructed for today's weights and uses. I looked for strong materials, good undercarriage bracing and galvanizing throughout. Welding instead of bolts so fewer parts could shake loose. Heavy duty springs and axle, and high mileage tires, capable of handling extra weight and bad roads. Most of all, I wanted room. I'm finished trying to park my Ski-Doo Grand Touring SE on dinky by trailers. Hyland's wide ten footer fit my bill. Which begs the question: what ever happened to all those suddenly too-narrow trailers abandoned because sleds no longer fit side by side?

Farm generators desperately needed

In the wake of Ice Storm '98, the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food and Rural Affairs (OMAFRA) is appealing to anyone with 35Kilowatt or 40Kilowatt generators because they are desperately needed by area farmers.

Last week, one of the most devastating ice storms in Canadian history hammered Eastern Ontario farmers. Electrical power, heat and telephone service was terminated for over a week.

Barns collapsed on livestock, dairy cows are dying from milk sickness, and farm houses have burned to the ground.

Anyone with generators that fit the following description are asked to consider lending them to this cause:

1) Farmers need at least 35Kilowatt models. 40Kilowatt and up are necessary to run farm operations with any kind of efficiency.

2) OMAFRA has developed a labelling and tracking system for any generators donated through them. They are confident that all generators will be properly handled and returned to the owner.

3) People donating generators privately should label them thoroughly.

4) The Premier and Minister of Agriculture have made assurances that any generator that disappears or is damaged will be replaced or repaired by the provincial government. This applies to generators donated privately as well.

People wanting to donate generators through OMAFRA should call 1-888-466-2372, ext. 64165 or 1-519-826-3830. Farmers in need of generators should call 1-888-466-2372, ext. 63830 or 63831.

LCBO goes to bat for Red Cross disaster relief fund

Collection boxes set up in local outlets

Norwood - If you want to make a donation to the Canadian Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund all you have to do is go to the nearest LCBO outlet.

On Tuesday the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations announced that the nearly 600 liquor outlets across Ontario would help collect donations for ice storm recovery efforts in eastern Ontario and Quebec.

"By placing donation boxes at checkout counters we can provide an efficient means for citizens to contribute to the Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund," Consumer Minister David Tsubouchi said in making the announcement.

"Each of us must do our part to assist in this time of need and the LCBO is the perfect network to collect assistance province-wide," Mr. Tsubouchi added.

"Historically, the LCBO has been very successful raising money for community and charitable organizations through its donation box program," says LCBO CEO Andy Brandt.

"We hope the public will take this opportunity to support their fellow Canadians who have suffered so much recently," Mr. Brandt said. The outlets will have one

Raiders' last-second goal costs Rebels 4-3 decision

By Rolly Ethier

It was a night full of surprises but the biggest surprise of all was reserved for the hometown Campbellford Rebels.

Just when the Empire Junior C Hockey League game appeared to be heading into overtime with the score tied 3-3, a shot by Mike Kingham, just as the buzzer sounded, enabled the Napanee Raiders to escape with a 4-3 victory.

It was a bewildering finish for the Rebels, who battled back to take a 2-1 lead at one stage in the second period.

Another big surprise for team officials occurred before the game even started. The referee and linesmen scheduled to work failed to show up for their scheduled assignment. Local referees Jason White and Dennis Doherty, called on as replacements, received approval from both the Rebels and Raiders. The two went on to perform their officiating chores in admirable fashion.

Todd Vansteenburg opened the scoring for Napanee with the lone goal of the first period as he connected with help from Andrew Box and Devin Deverennes.

Campbellford battled back onto even terms early in the second period with Ian Petty getting the goal after Jeff Hay got the puck to him. With only 1:34 left in the period, Bryce Levesque gave the Rebels a 2-1 lead on a power play, converting on a play with Kevin Larmer and Jim Hazlewood. Rebels enjoyed a manpower advantage at the time.

However, the Raiders got the puck to go in again just as the buzzer sounded with Kevin Lollar the triggerman on assists from Chris Reid and Andrew Plumlet. Making the goal even more frustrating for the Rebels is that it came while the Raiders were playing shorthanded.

Team officials were also pondering how often one team was victimized twice in the same game by goals scored in the final second. The odds are almost astronomical.

Regain Lead

Campbellford regained the lead early in the final period, capitalizing on a power play. Tony Goula was the marksman after Craig Buttar and Chris

Nickle got him the puck. With goalie Scott

Abrams turning aside everything the Rebels fired at him in the final period, Napanee finally managed to pull even at 3-3 with 7:45 left on a power play opportunity.

Defenceman Jamie Hinchey's long drive, after a passing exchange with Plumlet and Troy Elliott, eluded Rebels goalie Steve Stoeckdale. That set the stage for Kingham's electrifying shot that cost the Rebels dearly and resulted in their biggest letdown of the season.

With the regular schedule winding down and only five games remaining, the Rebels are desperately attempting to hold on to their first place position in order to gain home ice advantage in the playoffs.

Three more home games remain. Rebels host the Little Britain Merchants Saturday, Jan. 17th. The following Saturday night, Jan. 24th, the Rebels meet the Ernestown Jets. Rebels and Jets meet again Sunday afternoon (Jan. 25th) in Ernestown before Campbellford closes out the schedule Jan. 31st at home against Napanee.

Happy 65th to Ruth and Roy!

Ruth and Roy Barnum of Campbellford celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Dec. 28th at the home of a niece and her husband, Janet and Henry Ellenberger. Forty of their relatives were present, including their son Robert, his wife Sheila, granddaughter Yvonne and her husband Peter Glenn. Also attending was Ruth's nephew, Douglas Stewart and his wife Valerie.

Messages of congratulations were received from Prime Minister Jean Chretien and Governor General Romeo LeBlanc.

Speeches were made by members of the family, including Roy's brother Don and his two sisters—Evelyn Denny and Helen Loyves. Glasses were raised in a toast wishing Roy and Ruth health and happiness.

More Able Than Disabled

By Barbara Bruce-Pealow

Natural Healing Therapies and what to be aware of

Hello, everyone! Hope your week has been a good one! I have been discussing Natural Healing therapies with a few people and gained some insight to the pros and cons and things to be aware of with complementary therapies.

Over the next couple of columns, I will be assisted by my daughter, Sandra, in bringing you as much information as we can. If you require further information, please write to me, Barbara Bruce-Pealow, RR 2, Campbellford, KOI 1L0. We will either answer your questions in the column to share information with others, or keep it confidential. Please include your preference. Thanks.

Club Business: The next meeting of The More Able Than Disabled Club will be held on February 10, 1998, at 1 p.m. in the Palliative Care Office. Sandra Outingdyke is scheduled as the guest speaker. Everyone welcome.

First of all I would like to introduce my daughter, Sandra Outingdyke. Sandra is a Registered Practical Nurse, Social Service Worker, and Natural Therapist who practices independent nursing, Reiki, ear candling, Chakra balancing and a few other things. She lives in Campbellford-Seymour where she operates her business "Ways of Older: Connective Healing", which is also a mobile service.

We got to talking last week over our favourite herbal tea (catnip) about stuff and concluded that even though there are a lot of wonderful natural healing modalities out there, there isn't a lot of access to basic information on how these work.

One of the issues is that there is no board to govern quality assurance and there are some who seem to want to jump on the bandwagon. Sandra refers these to the "flock of ducks" that are out there - QUACKS! Our advice to you is ask questions.

A confident, competent practitioner will be happy to answer, so ask as many questions as needed. No question is a stupid question, as we can't possibly know everything and we all learn from each other. Also the practitioner may be led to believe that you already know, or that if you wanted more information you'd ask.

Be wary of those who profess miracle cures. If you are considering herbal remedies, talk to an expert on the subject and inform your regular doctor. Some herbs may actually work against some medications or be contradicted for some conditions. For example, juniper should not be taken during pregnancy. A good defence is the best defence... educate yourself. Read up on herbs, but be a little skeptical. This is according to advice in "Prevention" magazine. They warn that today's self-styled herbalists seldom have a background in chemistry and botany.

Again, ask questions even about the practitioners' background. If they are just selling a product, and don't know too much about the product, head for the hills!

On the other side of the coin, ordinary people - not doctors and scientists - are the ones bringing nature and medicine together again. If used appropriately they can be effective and readily available to anyone. Herbs are a reminder that we depend on plants for life.

Watch next week for the continuation on natural therapies.

Now for chow!

Tuna Casserole with Dill

Dill: With sugar and water syrup it was used to calm fussy babies (Gripe Water). The colonists called dill the "meeting house" herb as they chewed the seeds to lull them through the long sermons of the period.

2 cans each 6-ounce

tuna
1 can (10 ounce condensed) mushroom soup
1/4 cup sherry
1/2 - 1 cup milk
salt and pepper to taste
4 ounces cooked spaghetti or other pasta
1 teaspoon fresh or 1/4 dried dill weed
1/2 - 1 cup grated cheese (or more if you like)

Drain tuna, then mix it with the soup, dill, salt, pepper, sherry and 1/2 cup milk. Add additional milk if necessary. Mix in pasta and top with cheese. Cook in 350 degree F. oven for about 20 minutes, or when cheese is golden brown.

Chow for now.

Happy Novice Champions—Tweed Hawks marched to four consecutive victories to capture the A division championship at the annual Campbellford novice hockey tournament last weekend. ### Members being sought to join exclusive club

Polar Bear plunge feature event of Festival weekend

With the BIA's sixth annual Polar Bear Festival just two weeks away, coordinator John Sharpe is looking for new members to join the exclusive Polar Bear Club.

"After all it's a club that requires just a once-a-year meeting and it offers a refreshing outcome," quips Sharpe about the annual plunge at Lions Club Beach Saturday, Jan. 31st.

Last year about 15 intrepid volunteers showed the tenacity to defy the chilling temperatures in order to take a mid-winter dip in the Trent River. Expected to once again lead the parade of plungers is Peterborough's John Clements, who amazes spectators with his ability to withstand the big chill with his casual approach to the venture.

Sharing the limelight with the Polar Plunge event, which starts at noon, is the Chocolate and Cheese Festival upstairs at the Legion Hall from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Last year the event attracted over 1,000 people. Organizers are indebted to the support of the World's Finest Chocolates and Empire Cheese in staging the get-together.

The Chili Festival will be sharing centre stage at the Legion Hall. It was an extremely popular spot last year as spectators returning from the Polar Plunge lined up to thaw out by sampling the variety of chili recipes.

The Polar Bear weekend also includes the Rotary Club's Second City Dinner Theatre at the Masonic Hall on Saturday starting at 7 p.m. The Campbellford Rebels will be appearing in their final home game of the regular schedule at 8 p.m. when they face the Napanee Raiders. A hockey dance follows the game upstairs at the arena.

Kennedy Park will be the scene of some G-T snow racing and horse-drawn sleigh rides during the afternoon, from 2 to 4 p.m.

while the band Bridge Street will be featured at the free admission Polar Country Dance at the Legion from 9 to 1 a.m.

The festival continues Sunday, Feb. 1st with the Campbellford/Seymour Library presenting a live play, "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" at the Aron Theatre at 2 p.m. The Sunday program also includes the snow sculpting competition at a contestant's home with judging in kids and adult categories. Legion Branch 103 is sponsoring free public skating at the arena from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Elzevir Vehicle recovered

Elzevir Twp -- Officers responded to a call that a car was running in a ditch on Forbes Road in Elzevir Township at 6:05 a.m. On arrival they found a car running in the edge of a frozen river. The ignition had been damaged and the car could not be shut off in the usual manner. Checks revealed the car had been stolen on Jan. 13 from Seagrave (north of Port Perry which is north of Oshawa). A set of footprints disappeared a short distance from this car indicating a second vehicle picked up the person who abandoned the stolen car.

Although it is not known there is a connection, a car was reported stolen from Gladstone Street, Madoc at 6:36 a.m., Jan. 14, 1998. It is a 1990 Chrysler Daytona white in colour bearing Ontario licence plates 286KSO.

Anyone with information about either of these vehicles can call Madoc or Quinte OPP or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-TIPS.

Opening Night "Anything Goes"

Opening Night of musical "Anything Goes" -- The first musical to be presented at Centre Hastings Secondary School in Madoc last weekend was a resounding success. 32 actors worked for four months learning lines, songs, dances and production. The four performances brought out more than 800 from the tri-town area of Madoc, Marmora and Tweed. No one went home disappointed. Above are three of the leads. (L-R) Jason MacArthur and Jesse Gottlieb Jacob and Becky Fleming as they end their song "Friendship". Right - Becky Fleming was a shining light in the production. Her songs had that swing, her voice delightful, and her onstage presence magnetic. Opening night photos/C.L. Marriot

Novice Hornets look sharp in tourney action

Norwood - Getting to tournament finals is becoming a habit for Norwood's Begg Fuels novice Hornets.

The high-flying squad wrapped up a "B" title in Colborne recently then lost a heartbreaking "A" final in their own tourney Jan. 3.

In Colborne the Hornets edged the host club 4-3 to take the "B" title giving them a shot at the big "A" final prize against Ennismore.

With three games already under their belts, Norwood ran out of gas losing the "A" final 6-1.

To open the tourney Norwood defeated Brighton 3-2 in a hard-fought battle that saw Greg Kavish open the scoring with an unassisted goal. At the 4:32 mark of the second, Ronnie Hughes scooped up a rebound from Tyler Oliver's shot to notch the team's second of the game.

Amber Brightman scored the Hornets third goal on a pretty three-way passing play from Sawyer Gerow and Oliver.

Brighton pressed hard in the third to narrow the score but strong defensive play by Darren Rioux and goalie Justin Vandenberg allowed the Hornets to hang on.

In game two, Norwood faced off with the strong Ennismore squad. The hardworking team played well but losing by a narrow 2-0 score.

The stage was set for the "B" final against the hosts.

Oliver burned the net at the 6:06 mark of the first then Baron McDonald wasted no time stretching the lead to 2-0 with Hughes and Oliver assisting. The end-to-end action produced a Colborne goal with 42 seconds remaining in the first.

Chris Ridgeway blasted an unassisted marker from the point to open the second frame. But the home side did not give up and replied with a pair of goals to tie the match.

Norwood had to wait until the 7:28 mark of the third when Brightman scored, from Oliver and Gerow, to clinch the "B" title and a berth in the grand final against tough Ennismore.

The tired Hornets dropped the decision 6-1 with Kavish (from Ridgeway) scoring for Norwood.

Gracious hosts

On Jan. 3, the Hornets hosted teams from Stirling, Campbellford, Havelock, Huntsville, Bala, Woodville and Warkworth.

They opened the tourney with a 5-1 win over the Campbellford Colts. Norwood struck first when Kavish tucked in at the 1:49 mark of the first. Brad Walsh notched the team's second goal with a helper going to Jordan Wright.

Tyler McMilloye and McDonald assisted on Kavish's second of the match. The Colts slipped one past Norwood stopper Matt McKinnon, before Oliver sealed the game with two more goals with help from Gerow and Hughes.

Wrightly and Walsh teamed up for the opening score against Warkworth. The ink was barely dry when McDonald (Ridgeway and Kavish) put Norwood in front 2-0. The third goal of the match came from right winger Andrew Irwin when he broke in on the net and notched an unassisted goal.

Oliver, from Wrightly and McMilloye, allowed Norwood to settle into a comfortable lead. Linemates Gerow, Hughes assisted on Brightman's first of the day. Oliver's unassisted marker halfway through the third frame rounded out the Norwood scoring.

Warkworth scored the final goal of the game to make it 6-1.

The "A" final turned out to be one of the best matches of the year in Norwood with the Hornets facing off with the defending OMHA E champs from Bala.

The end-to-end action proved to be highly entertaining with Norwood grabbing a 2-0 first period lead on goals by Oliver (unassisted) and Kavish (McDonald and McMilloye).

Bala took control of the score sheet in the final two frames scoring twice to tie it at 2-2 when the buzzer sounded. This set the stage for a shoot-out final. Oliver scored as one of Norwood's three shooters but two of Bala's snipers found the mark to ensure a 4-3 tourney tie.

OPP Report

Occupants injured in two-vehicle crash

Several passengers received injuries and both cars were severely damaged in an accident occurring Jan. 10 at the Twelve O'Clock Point Road in Murray Township.

Police were called to the accident that involved a 1988 Ford Aerostar and a 1993 Chrysler. The Aerostar, proceeding northbound on Highway 33, was driven by Paul Vincier of Trenton. Vincier, his wife and son, were returning from a hockey game and were crossing the swing bridge when the 1993 Chrysler pulled out in front of him at the intersection of Twelve O'Clock Point Road.

Both vehicles collided and ended up on the northwest shoulder. The Chrysler was driven by William Wright of Wellington.

Jordan Vincier, 10, received minor injuries. In the Wright vehicle, both the driver and his wife Vicki received injuries as well as one passenger, Trenea Lough of Hillier. None of the injuries were described as life threatening.

In Murray Township, a single vehicle accident was investigated Jan. 11th. Kyle Adams of Frankford was operating a 1989 Chevy eastbound on Maybee Road. The roads were icy and the vehicle slid straight on through the ditch and struck a tree. Neither the driver nor his two passengers were injured.

Meanwhile, several curlers reported items stolen from the change rooms at the Brighton Curling Club Jan. 6th while they were on the ice. Some property was later recovered behind the Dixie Lee outlet and other items were recovered in a washroom at the high school. All monies are missing as well as other items.

Also in Brighton, police were called as thieves entered the Mandarin Restaurant and stole some cash. An attempt was also made on the flea market but was unsuccessful.

Thieves attempted to break into a residence on Telephone Road in Murray Township Jan. 9th but were thwarted when the property owner was home and spotted them. When aware they had been seen, the two suspects ran off.

46 per cent increase worries police...

Impaired driving arrests take sharp jump during year

Peterborough City. - The Kawartha OPP have expressed concern over the rise in the number of impaired driving arrests during the past year.

Impaired driving arrests in the Kawartha OPP's jurisdiction jumped a staggering 46 per cent in 1997 and also showed a slight rise during the traditional festive R.I.D.E. program.

There were 291 drivers charged with impaired driving in 1997 - up from 199 last year and 227 in 1995.

Province-wide statistics also show a "significant increase" in the number of impaired driving arrests during the festive R.I.D.E. crackdown.

The Kawartha OPP experienced a slight increase in arrests during the festive R.I.D.E., says Senior Constable Bob LaFreniere.

However, Const. LaFreniere says the "big picture for the year, beyond festive R.I.D.E., clearly shows the prevalence of the drinking driver on our roadways in the Kawarthas.

"Members of the Kawartha detachment recognize this threat exists on our roads and have made every effort to apprehend offenders," he says.

"The increased charges reflect perhaps as well an irresponsible or carefree attitude by those drivers charged," he adds.

CHSS News

Anne Workman

Welcome back CHSS! Due to weather conditions and hence, numerous bus cancellations since the return from Christmas holidays, a majority of students missed most of our first week back.

That time of year is approaching ever so quickly, students...EXAMS! Examinations will begin Jan. 23 and will continue until Jan. 28. Specific schedules have been provided to students. First semester will thus come to an end on Jan. 30, and second semester will begin on the following Monday, Feb. 2.

Notice: Students going to college next year are presently in the process of filling out college applications. Please return these applications to the guidance office no later than Feb. 2.

The CHSS musical, "Anything Goes", was scheduled to be held Jan. 8, 9 and 10, however the opening night performance was postponed to the following Monday, Jan. 12 and was instead the closing night performance. It was an excellent performance and a delight to see! Four sold out performances of "Anything Goes" indicated that the community had been very supportive of this Centre Hastings Secondary School accomplishment. Thank you.

CHSS Jr. Basketball Action

The CHSS junior boys basketball team hosted East Northumberland Secondary School on Wednesday, Jan. 14. The juniors were in control in the third quarter and looked like they were on their way to victory.

Concert to raise food bank, youth centre donations

A concert featuring six local and out-of-town bands will be held on Saturday, Jan. 24, at the Trinity United Church in Madoc, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The concert will provide an evening of entertainment for young people, as well as raising donations for Helping Hands, the local food bank and for Foundations the Christian youth centre.

The six bands will include Hing Lung from Ottawa, Ideoallah from Toronto, and local bands, Boleau 4, Corporal Paquette, and Fluffamuffagus.

The concert is being billed as an all ages, non-smoking, non-alcohol event.

Organizers feel the event gives the young people the opportunity to experience music of out-of-town bands, as well as giving the bands a venue to play. They also feel the event is a positive effort proving to the older generation that young people can support a worthy cause.

Admission will be $3 or canned goods with a value of $2.

Madoc Minor Hockey Report

by Karen Nickle

The opening game of our Atom B tournament on Jan. 3 featured our Wildcats in action against the Frankford Huskies. Following a scoreless first, our Atoms drew first blood, with a goal scored by Jason Lutka, on assists from Will Dawes and Travis Gordon. 45 seconds into the second, Frankford tied the match at the midway point, but

Anthony Halliday scored the go-ahead goal a minute later to regain the Madoc lead. Third period scoring was only for Madoc. With Will Dawes scoring the insurance marker on assists from Jason Lutka and Travis Gordon, to capture the match 3-1. The Trenton Hawks met our Wildcats in their second match of the day. Trenton opened scoring in the first and led 1-0 until the opening minute and a half of the third. Anthony Halliday scored the tying goal on an assist from Jason Lutka, but Trenton fired back to regain their lead half a minute later. At the 5:33 mark of the third, Will Dawes tied the match on assists from Chad Stein and Jason Lutka and the score remained tied to the end of regulation. A nail-biting overtime period followed with neither team finding the mark. A shoot-out followed the overtime, and Trenton scored the winner in the shoot-out, taking a 3-2 decision. The B final was won by Warkworth, with a 2-0 shut-out over Frankford, and Prince Edward County defeated Trenton 4-1 to capture the A Championship.

Tweed provided the competition for our PeeWees on Jan. 5, winding down league action. The visitors came out strong, with two first period goals, before Mark Boyle answered the call for the home team to score our only first period marker, on assists from Jim Meraw and Tyler Gordon. Our Wildcats held the visitors scoreless, with a strong second period showing. Mark scored the first marker of the second, with Jim and Tyler assisting. Caleb Atkinson fired in the go-ahead goal, with an assist from Rob Reynolds 19 seconds later and Mike Stein increased the home team lead to 4-2 before the close of the second, on an assist from Ryan Johansen. Madoc rolled on with Tyler Gordon scoring a pair in the third, the first assisted by Jim Meraw, the second unassisted, before Tweed could manage another goal, with only 34 seconds left in the match. Jim Meraw poured salt on Tweed's wounds 10 seconds later, scoring the seventh Madoc goal, to cap off the PeeWee 7-3 win.

on the board with a third of the period away, and Tweed poured it on to score another pair before the close of the second to take a 3-2 lead. Twenty seconds into the third, Mike McCann picked up a pass from Jason Wilson to tie the match, and despite a supper effort, neither team could put in the winner and the match ended in a 3-3 tie.

With league play winding down, our Bantams faced a tough Ottonabee team on Jan. 9. Mike McCann and T.J. Tomlinson scored two goals each, while Duke Cassidy and Jason Wilson netted singles in this 6-2 Madoc win. Jason posted three assists, with Rob Curtis, Mike McCann, Derrick Blackburn and B.J. Rollins pitching in with singles.

Our Tykes opened the action on Jan. 10, hosting the Marmora Stars. Trevor Woodward and Ian McNab scored a pair of goals each, while Brennan Robinson netted a single. Trevor and Andy Moore pitched in with one assist each, in this 5-4 win.

Marmora also provided the competition for our Novices following the Tykes. The visitors dominated first period action with three unanswered goals and posted two in the second before our Wildcats hit the board. Jarrod Cassidy found the mark for the home team midway through period two, with an assist from Rob Blakely. Marmora increased their lead to 6-1 before the close of the second. Third period action saw another goal for Jarrod, assisted by Cody Chambers and a goal for Rob, assisted by Jarrod. Marmora managed one more goal in the third, to take the match 7-3.

Our Bantams faced Tweed in a much anticipated match on Jan. 6. The home team scored the only goal of the first period play, with Jason Wilson finding the mark, on an assist from Jesse Cassidy. Mike McCann raised the stakes to 2-0 for the home team 33 seconds into the second with an unassisted shot. A power play gave the visitors the opening they needed to get

Council unable to grant requests to change names

by Jeff Wilson

Centre Hastings Township Council was unable to grant requests to maintain the name of the arena board and the hydro commission.

During a regular council meeting held on Wednesday, Jan. 14, council cited the provincial amalgamation order that states the arena board and hydro commission will be known as the Centre Hastings arena board and the Centre Hastings hydro commission, respectively, as the reason for the name changes.

During a discussion on the issue, council was informed they had no provision allowing them to change the names until revisions to the Municipal Act are passed by the province.

The request to maintain the arena board name as the Madoc and District arena board was made by representatives from Madoc Township Council, who felt removing the "Madoc" name from the title fails to acknowledge the contributions to the arena by township.

In an effort to find a compromise, Reeve Tom Deline suggested that the names of the municipalities providing operating funds for the arena be included in the letterhead, below the board name.

Council passed a motion that the arena and library boards and hydro commission be allowed to identify municipal on their letterhead to acknowledge municipal needs and contributions.

The issue of the hydro commission name surfaced after council received a letter from hydro commission Manager Deanna Snider asking that the commission's name remain unchanged. In her letter on behalf of the hydro commission, Snider stated that the hydro commission was created through a bylaw by Madoc Village and services only the residents of the village as reasons to maintain the name. She also stated that it would also be economically feasible to keep the name, saving the cost of changing letterhead, envelope, billing forms, invoice renaming.

Council passed a motion that all name changes in the Minister of Municipal Affairs' amalgamation order be left unchanged until the Municipal Act receives Royal Assent with any changes being made by the process contained in the Act.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

As a Principal in a public school with the Hastings and Prince Edward District School Board, I am often questioned by members of the general public about what teachers do when school buses are cancelled. Although the following information is particular to Madoc Public School, I would appreciate the opportunity to share it with taxpayers who are not parents at this school and may not be aware that during the latest bad weather days, we remained open and functioning as a school.

It is very unusual for our Board to close schools on bad weather days, although I fully understand why this was done farther to the east during the recent state of emergency due to the ice storm. In the 23 years that I have worked this Board, there have only been three occasions that I recall when a school in which I taught was closed for all or part of a day due to severe weather conditions.

At Madoc Public School on Jan. 5, all buses were cancelled, but 159 students were present. On Jan. 6, all buses were cancelled, but 224 students were present. On Jan. 7, no buses were cancelled, but 410 students were present. On Jan. 8, five buses were cancelled, but 410 students were present. On Jan. 9, all buses were cancelled, but 164 students were present. On Jan. 13, all buses were cancelled, but 223 students were present. During these days, no teachers were absent due to weather. Continued on page 15

Grand Opening

A Subway submarine sandwich shop officially opened its doors on Thursday in Madoc. On hand for the official ribbon cutting ceremony were (l-r): Co-owners Jay Shin and Paul Shin, Paul's wife Mary Jane Shin, TD Bank Madoc Branch Manager Jim Roulston, Madoc and District Chamber of Commerce Treasurer Cheryl Freeman, Centre Hastings Township Reeve Tom Deline. The new franchise is located within the Towne and Country Restaurant, on Durham Street South. Subway franchises are the fastest growing outlets in Canada. This particular franchise is quite unique, located within a restaurant, and could possibly be the only one in Canada.

Larmer Strikes Again--Rebel captain Kevin Larmer wheels away from the net after depositing the puck past goalie Jeremy McInnis of the New Britain Merchants for the first Campbellford goal of the night. ### Rebels show playoff form, beating vaunted Merchants

Are the Campbellford Rebels gradually reaching top form with the Empire Junior League playoffs just around the corner?

Coach Tom Tanner and the rest of the Rebel executive team, as well as their fans, have reason to believe they are.

Saturday night's solid performance on home ice against the Little Britain Merchants, the top team in their own division, definitely served as an encouraging playoff criterion.

Rebels came out with a determined glint in their eyes, forechecked fiercely from the opening faceoff, and were rewarded with a convincing
3-0 victory over the vaunted
Merchants.

Backed by the flawless
24-stop shutout goaltending of Matt Barry, Rebels also received a glittering offensive display by captain Kevin Larmer, who scored all three of his team's goals. The "hat trick" increased his league-leading margin in the scoring race.

What made the Rebels' fine effort a little surprising is that it came in the team's third game in just four days.
Earlier in the week, in a pair of road games, the Rebs knocked off the Colborne
Hawks 8-6 but suffered a 6-4 defeat at the hands of the Picton Pirates Thursday night.

The Merchants simply couldn't cope with Larmer's elusive style as he opened the scoring at 11:09 of the first period on a pretty threeway play with defenceman
Kevin Cork and Bryce Levesque. He sailed in to deke goalie Jeremy McInnis.

Then with 5:06 remaining before the intermission, Larmer struck again, this time teaming up with Jim Hazlewood and Travis
Turner.

Rebels held their 2-0 lead throughout a scoreless second period until Larmer completed his hat-trick in the final session. This time
Levesque and defenceman
Jon Quinlan did the spadework.

Larmer was again a driving force against Colborne as he racked up two more goals and earned three assists for a five-point night.

Hagerman Fires Trio

Adam Hagerman connected three times to lead the goal-scoring parade while Jim Hazlewood netted a pair.
Tony Goulah had the other goal. Levesque turned in a strong game with three assists.

For Colborne, P. J.
Michael had two goals while Scott Gilmour, Justin Williams, Josh Thomas and Serge Savard fired singles.

Campbellford, which trailed 3-2 after the first period, took command in the second period when they untied a four-goal barrage.
The Hawks battled back, outscoring the Rebs 3-2 in the final 20 minutes but it was too little too late.

Against Picton, the Rebels trailed all the way after Jody McMurter drew first blood with a goal midway through the first period. Picton's offensive power was spread around evenly with Wayne Brown, Scott Wilson, Chad Clark,
Shane Cutler and Jason
Coons each scoring once.

Three of Campbellford's four goals by Mike Ryan,
Tony Goulah and J. P.
Goulah came on power play opportunities. Larmer added an unassisted goal to complete the Rebel scoring.

It was a well-played game with both teams sticking strictly to hockey and ignoring the cheap shots. Referee Allan Dettlor had to call only seven minor penalties with the Rebels serving only one minor infraction.

REBELS IN REVIEW

Rebels in Review. The regular season is almost over and playoffs are just around the corner. Since the start, last Sept '97, the Rebels have been in a constant battle with the Picton Pirates to remain in 1st place, and also to defend their 1996-97 Empire B' League Championship.

Training Camp started in Sept. again in Stirling, with a number of players back from last year's championship team and with several new players invited to camp, the prospects looked encouraging. As the team was being picked the Rebels, also held their 2nd Annual Food Drive in September and they would like to thank the people of Campbellford for their continued support for this worthy cause. The 36 game season began in October and by November the Rebels were 10 wins 1 loss and 0 ties for an impressive start, and were ranked 5th in Ontario and the Jr. C level in the OHA. During the first part of November they also served supper at the Legion Br. 103 as an annual event which was very well received and near the end of November they held a Family Night at the Arena (1/2 price night) in appreciation of their fans. After being in the Santa Claus Parade, they travelled to Kingston as defending champs for the Bell Canada 'Clothes for Kids' Tournament. This year they came away with 3 straight losses. Two weeks later they had their own 'Toys for Kids' night at the arena (free admission with unwrapped toy) and again this year it was a great success. The toys were taken to the Salvation Army in time for Christmas. The Rebels would like to thank everyone who participated. Dec. 1st saw the Rebels ranked 12th out of 53 in Ontario and held a slight lead over Picton Pirates for 1st in the Empire B' League. As the regular season draws near to the end they find themselves in 2nd place 3 points behind Picton who still have 1 game in hand, and the Rebels have 4 games to play. Uxbridge Bruins, Ernestown Jets twice and Napanee Raiders in the last game at home on Jan. 31st at 8:00PM. The Jets are 12 points behind and have 5 games remaining including back to back games with the Rebels this weekend. The Rebels have secured 2nd and still have a chance for 1st.

The Executive of the Rebels would like to also take this opportunity to thank the Sponsor and also our many program sponsors. With out their support year after year it would be very difficult to operate a Jr. team in Campbellford. The fans who come out game after game are also very much appreciated. The fans in Campbellford are the best in the League for supporting their team, at Home and AWAY. With playoffs just around the corner, the scenarios of who plays who are still up in the air, but there is no doubt that the Rebels will end up playing Napanee or Picton or both before its over. Again we would like to thank all the following businesses for their support in the 1997-98 Season.

Thank you Campbellford for supporting our 2nd Annual Food Drive for the Campbellford Food Bank.

The art of Ear Candling

I would first like to correct an error I made a couple of weeks ago. The turkey for our club Christmas party was donated by Gary and Pat McMackin, not McCracken, sorry Gary and Pat. This week Sandra and I are continuing on from last week's column regarding Natural Healing Therapies.

Sandra has been doing some investigating on ear candling. Sandra practices this in our business, Ways of Olde and Connective Healings and, based on some of her discoveries, has decided to share some tips with us.

It's all yours Sandra. Thanks, Mom.

Hello. With the growing popularity of ear candling, auricular candling, the candles are now being sold in health food stores, bulk stores and by people who make them. Always find out what they are made from.

Ear candles should be made from 100 per cent beeswax. Paraffin is not a good material as it is a petroleum product and contraindicates many natural therapies. Check to see if essential oils or herbs are used in the candles as you may be allergic to them.

If you buy a candle and the hole at the ear end appears a little small, take tweezers and open it up a wee bit. Never blow out a candle while still in a person's ear! Have you seen the movie "BACKDRAFT"? Not good!

Always, examine the ear before and after candling for shape of the ear canal and any loose debris. Do not candle if the person has a perforated ear drum or tubes in their ears, or has had recent surgery in the ears, eyes, or head area. Do not candle during the infectious stage but, after the infection is cleared up. Ear candling is a safe relaxing way to deep clean your ears and can promote healing and stress reduction.

Back to you Mom! Thanks, Sandra.

Independent nursing is a growing industry. Government cutbacks in financing to hospitals and other services, an increase in the elderly population, and people choosing to be cared for at home, all contribute to this growing service.

You should ask an independent nurse if their registration is current. Nurses practicing in Ontario must be registered with The College of Nurses of Ontario. This board governs practice and sets the standards for nursing in Ontario. The college is located in Toronto. The phone number is 1-800-387-5526 for general inquiries. Because the nurse will be working closely with the client and the caregiver, you should feel comfortable with the nurse.

Having a trusting professional relationship where the lines of communication are open is an important aspect in the relationship. Ask yourself, "Am I comfortable with this person, and am I getting enough information, and is it the information I need?" If the answer is 'no', then it may not be a question of competence on the nurse's part, but may be one of a personality issue. Having a nurse come into the home to provide care should be something to look forward to, a positive experience.

Now for chow!

In keeping with the healthy theme, I thought another recipe with herbs was appropriate. This recipe is delicious and inexpensive to make. You can substitute two tablespoons of vinegar and water to bring to 1/2 cup instead of the white wine.

Thyme Chicken

- 2-1/2 lbs. chicken (1 buy the legs)
- 4 tablespoons cooking oil
- 1 garlic clove, crushed

- 1 small green pepper sliced
- 1 medium onion, thinly sliced
- 1 lb. can tomatoes
- 1/2 cup white wine
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- Freshly ground pepper, you decide how much.
- 1/4 teaspoon thyme
- 1/8 teaspoon marjoram

Season chicken with salt and pepper. Brown lightly in the hot oil. Add onion, green pepper and garlic. Saute gently for a few minutes and then add the rest of the ingredients. Cover and simmer for about a half of an hour, or until tender. Enjoy! Serve with sage squash.

Slice 4 squash in half and steam in water for about 10 minutes. Place, sliced side up in buttered baking dish. Sprinkle 1/2 teaspoon sage over squash, and dot with butter, sprinkle a little salt and top with some grated cheese (cheddar, mozzarella, etc., or mix a few together). Bake in 350 degree F. oven until done - about 1/2 hour to 45 minutes.

Ensure a Perfect Wedding Day with Planning

After all those months, and even years, of planning, your wedding day has almost arrived. However, with the wedding almost one month away, the final details must be taken care of. You may be driving yourself crazy trying to remember everything that needs to be done, so the ceremony and reception will go off without a hitch.

To ease the tension you may encounter during the next month, Modern Bride magazine offers some helpful tips to ensure that all tasks will be completed, so you can relax and enjoy your wedding day.

THE MONTH BEFORE YOUR WEDDING

- Develop an orderly system of tracking guests' responses.
- Discuss the bachelor party with your fiancé. Suggest the event be scheduled at least a week before the wedding day.
- Call the caterer, and finalize the menu. Be sure the cake has been ordered.
- Give your caterer a reliable estimate of the number of guests expected at the reception.
- Confer with the florist to be sure everything is ordered. Confirm the time that flowers will be delivered and decorations will be completed.

- Arrange the transportation schedule for the wedding party.
- Make certain you are insured against damage or loss in transit.

TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE WEDDING

- Set a date with your fiancé to get your marriage license.
- Be sure all clothing and accessories for the bridal party are in order.
- Submit your wedding announcement and photograph to the society editor of your local newspaper.
- Change your name on your bank account, Social Security card, license, insurance and other documents if you are assuming your husband's last name.
- Call guests who have not responded to their invitation to ask if they'll be attending.

ONE WEEK BEFORE THE WEDDING

- Confirm ceremony vocalists and musicians, and recheck your musical selections.
- Present a small gift or note of appreciation to friends and relatives who did special favors and made the planning run smoothly.

- Add last-minute acceptances, and phone your caterer with the final guest count.
- Do a final check on details with your florist, caterer, sexton, clergy, musicians and photographer.
- Finalize your honeymoon plans, and begin packing.

ONE DAY BEFORE THE WEDDING

- Have a manicure, pedicure and even a massage to pamper yourself.
- Attend the rehearsal. Review all important duties with the principals in the wedding party.
- Give ushers the list of guests to be seated in the reserved section.

THE WEDDING DAY

- Rest and thoroughly relax in a nice, warm bath.
- Allow plenty of time to dress - about two hours before the ceremony, if possible.
- Have a wonderful wedding, and enjoy every moment.

Best Cure for 'Wedding Jitters'

It's normal for the bride to get a case of "wedding jitters" before the ceremony. However, it is vital that all of the last-minute details have been taken care of. Whether it be the bride, herself, or, most likely, a good friend assigned to the tasks at hand, it is important to get everything com- pleted.

- Place a note on the front door reminding the bride and her attendants to take gloves, pocketbooks and bouquets before leaving for the ceremony.
- Assign someone to check out the reception site to make sure that all the flowers have been delivered.

ered, the cake has arrived and seating cards have been set out.

- If the bride or family members want centerpieces taken home, tell someone beforehand to be in charge of collecting them before the guests take them and there are none left.
- Give a list of special group photos to be taken, perhaps of cousins, classmates and office mates to the photographer.
- Assign someone to signal the organist that the ceremony is about to begin.
- Make every attempt to be on time. Every minute delayed throws off the next step: the food preparation, the band or disc jockey, even down to the ice in the water glasses. Everyone that day has a schedule; don't complicate it by being late.

Graced with hand beaded and embroidered silver petits fleurs, this elegant silk peau de soie ball gown will enhance the bride's romantic aura. This classic gown features a modern scalloped halter corset bodice and full box-pleated skirt with sweep train.

1998 Bridal Showcase For Spring & Summer Brides

Thank the Ones Who Make The Day Special

In the weeks prior to the actual wedding ceremony, the bride's house will start to look like it does at Christmas. Packages and boxes of all shapes and sizes from various guests and well wishers will be arriving daily. In this time of excitement, organization is needed to keep track of who sent what gift.

One of the most important tasks that the bridal couple must complete is the overwhelming job of writing thank-you notes to all who sent gifts. The job of sending these notes is so time-consuming, because they must be written; a verbal thank you is not enough.

The only verbal note that can be sent is a telegram, which can get costly when sending to a large number of guests.

Wedding gifts are given to both the bride and groom. When writing a thank-you note, be sure the signature reflects both of them. Writing the notes is not just the task of the bride, so be sure to put the groom to work. One idea is for the groom to write to his friends and the bride to hers. It is fine to sign only one name, so long as the writer says, for example, "Tad and I thank you for the wonderful toaster."

Make sure the gift is specifically mentioned in the note. Keeping in mind that monetary gifts should never be referred to by dollar amount. A guest should be able to see that the couple appreciated, as well as remembered, the gift that was given to them.

The note should say exactly how the gift will be used. Additionally, if the gift needed to be returned, either because it was a duplicate or it simply could not be used, never inform the sender; a simple thank you is enough.

Be prompt in sending thank-you notes. Although it is perfectly acceptable to send a thank you up to three months after the wedding, couples should start writing before the wedding for gifts received in advance. This eliminates a lot of work and informs guests that the gifts were received and not lost during shipping.

Finally, couples should share any special memories they have of their guest from the wedding. Not only will they be thanking the guest for the gift, but most importantly, they'll be thanking him or her for coming to and celebrating the happy occasion with them.

The Many Lives of a Bridesmaid's Dress - a True Story

You've heard it before: "I know you'll be able to wear my bridesmaid's dress again." Sounds promising, but you're skeptical. That is, until you see that the bride has selected something with just the right amount of fashion and classic detailing, and it's a dress that makes you feel like it's your party she's giving!

How'd she do it? Will it cost a fortune? Will the same people who are going to the wedding be at the club dance - because that's where it's going next. Or, maybe the benefit ball. Not expensive and in the budget! With a change of accessories, this dress even may see the annual board-meeting dinner.

When selecting dresses for your bridal party, think classic shapes - with trims, but not overly trendy. You want to look back at those pictures and for it all to seem timeless. A look that flatters any shape, has detailing that adds interest, with fabric that moves easily - guarantees that your wedding group will feel as good as you do on the big day!

Bridal Showcase For Spring & Summer Brides

Have a Successful Party With Entertainment

ing day is one exciting and days in a couple's life. The bride and groom want everything, from the flowers to the food, to be perfect. They want the big day to be a success.

The following questions and answers, courtesy of Modern Bride magazine, can help you hire the best musicians for the reception.

1. Can I determine the quality of a band's performance by listening to a tape or viewing its video? If you like the sound on the tape and/or the way the band delivers on video, inquire about where you can see the group play at a showcase, an actual wedding or some other place where it is booked.

2. How can I be certain that the band I book will be the one at my wedding? It is essential to get the name of the band in writing on your contract.

3. Does the orchestra have liability insurance? A reputable company will maintain such coverage. Most reception facilities require that the orchestra furnish them with a certificate of insurance.

4. Does the band take breaks? Most bands take a 15-minute break after a 45-minute set. Taped music can be arranged during the breaks or continuous music (at an extra charge) can be planned.

5. Are there additional charges for traveling time, playing during cocktails and overtime? Probably. Ask about that at your initial meeting, and be sure that those charges are clearly stated in your contract and understood before you sign it.

6. Is there a surcharge or sales tax? There is no sales tax on musical services, but there may be some surcharges (i.e. payroll, transportation). Be sure to ask.

7. Does the band have an extensive song list with selections that appeal to a wide range of guests? A good band will be able to play a range of music that spans the decades, from big band to Top 40 to Motown hits, as well as ethnic pieces.

8. Will the band members wear appropriate attire? Unless otherwise noted, and depending on the formality of the wedding, members should wear black tie.

9. Is there a way I can be sure the amplification will not be deafening? Tell the bandleader or DJ of your concern: so if this is not a place where the group has played before, he or she can check out the location to prepare ahead for any acoustical challenges that must be addressed to keep the decibels under control.

10. Does the bandleader or DJ act as master of ceremonies and coordinate the sequence of events at the reception, and if so, should I meet with him or her about this before the wedding? The master of ceremonies is usually the bandleader or DJ, and you absolutely should have an in-person meeting to talk over the reception events.

Bridal Registry revisited

China patterns and power tools have a lot in common when it comes to the modern bridal registry. Just as couples have transformed the traditional wedding ceremony to suit their new lifestyles, so have retailers adapted the concept of the wedding registry to meet the changing needs of their customers.

Once reserved for gift stores offering china patterns, flatware and stemware, registries are now offered by a wider variety of outlets including large department stores and smaller neighbourhood hardware stores. There are even registries available on the Internet.

Couples today are not always as concerned with formal dinnerware as they are with trying to cope with the challenges of establishing a home for themselves in the new economy. A new wheelbarrow or shovel for gardening along with power tools for a home renovation project could be much more useful and more remembered by the couple when they look back on their life in years to come.

When faced with the challenge of gift giving, wedding guests often find it a relief to be able to pick from items they know will be used and appreciated, rather than gathering dust in the closet or being inventory for future yard sales. Certainly the traditional registries have their place, but there are a wider variety of choices available for couples today.

Pearls Are Considered the First Wedding Gem

Like most glowing brides-to-be, you probably dream of the perfect wedding. An eloquent exchange of vows, a beautiful gown, a scrumptious cake and a handsome groom are all elements of any memorable wedding ceremony. However, as most women who have graced the halls of matrimony will tell you, their wedding ensemble would not have been complete without a lustrous strand of cultured pearls.

Since a cultured pearl necklace often adds a finishing splash of elegance to any wedding gown, they are often a bride's gem of choice on her special day. Although pearls have become synonymous with brides, most people don't realize how and when that special bond was formed, or why pearls have become a staple of any bride's wardrobe.

Looking back in time, you can understand how the long-lasting relationship between pearls and brides has come about and how it will survive for many years to come.

One of the earliest relationships between brides and pearls is illustrated in ancient Hindu writings more than 3,000 years before the birth of Christ. According to these tomes, Krishna, the most revered god of Hindu worship, dove to the depths of the sea to collect a single, perfect pearl as a gift for his daughter on her wedding day. The gift of a pearl symbolized the purity and truth of the wedding bond.

Other cultures that associated pearls with brides include the ancient Greeks. They believed pearls could prevent brides from crying and would ensure marital bliss. Another story in Greek mythology tells how a strand of pearls was given by Hymen, the god of marriage, to princess Psyche on her wedding day.

During the dark ages, knights returning home from the Crusades often brought back pearl gifts for their "fair maidens" to wear on their wedding day. At the time, pearls were believed to embody the virtues of chastity and devotion.

Throughout the Middle Ages and into the Renaissance, pearls were used exclusively in wedding ceremonies by European nobility. Weddings in the royal families of Burgundy and Tudor were described as being "awash in a sea of pearls." Serving as emblems of regality and honor, the lustrous gems would retain a special place in bridal history forever.

With the advent of cultured pearls in the 1920s, what had once been a gem reserved for only the powerful and wealthy, now would be available for all brides. According to tradition passed down through the centuries, a gift of pearls usually was bestowed upon the bride by either her groom or his family. This simple token is a wish of love, good fortune and a long, happy marriage.

For those seeking to buy a gift of cultured pearls for the bride, it is important to choose a piece of jewelry that will last a lifetime and bring many years of joy.

Since cultured pearls are products of nature, they are seldom, if ever, perfect. Every pearl grown by an oyster has its own individual identity. However, when choosing a strand of cultured pearls, it is important to keep several quality points in mind.

Probably the most important aspect, as far as quality is concerned, is the luster of the pearl. Luster is the clear shine on the surface of the pearl. It should be clear enough to reflect the images of objects near the pearl.

Another important factor is the surface of the pearl. It should be relatively free of damaging blemishes that appear as cracks, bumps or pits.

Finally, all the pearls in a strand should be closely matched in terms of color, size and shape. They should all combine together to give an appearance of uniformity within the necklace.

Just as cultured pearls celebrate the bride, they also celebrate the wedding. They make fine gifts for the bride party. Bridesmaids will be delighted with gifts of inexpensive, yet lovely, freshwater cultured pearl necklaces or bracelets, while cultured pearl tie tacks, tie bars, cuff links or shirt studs are handsome tributes to the men in the wedding party.

Dog bylaw gets nod from Council

times get left behind, she said arguing that the by-law had to make allowances for working dogs in rural parts of the municipality, like those used for herding.

The by-law, Mrs. Turner said, is strict about dogs-at-large but does not take into consideration working dogs, which are occasionally on the roads or neighbouring property.

The by-law says dogs must be leashed or under the care and control of someone and can't run beyond their own property. If they are on someone else's property that landowner must first agree.

And while everyone knows what is intended by the by-law, Mrs. Turner pointed out that it still contains a clause specifically referring to guide dogs and argued that a similarly "specific reference or wording" should be included to cover working dogs under control of their owners.

This would correct the imbalance existing in the legislation and address this rural issue, she said.

"It should say in there that the dog has to be under somebody's control," Reeve Doug Percy said.

Norwood couple gets ready for sunny cruise

unexpected windfall.

Now, she says, family members living in Toronto are keen on the contest hoping some of the good luck brushes off on them.

"It's really not difficult," Anne says of the contest. "It has become a ritual with us. It's just a matter of thinking about looking for the symbols located throughout the paper."

After telephoning The Star and telling them they thought they had a winning card it was simply a matter of waiting for the confirmation letter. Then the excitement started all over again.

The win includes a flight to Santo Domingo where they meet up with the luxury cruise ship Flamenco. There is one day of complete sailing but the boat also stops in inviting ports like St. Lucia, Martinique, Dominica, Antigua and St. Thomas.

The amenities on the Flamenco, like 24-hour cabin service, a Captain's welcome cocktail party and a Caribbean Festival, will not be too difficult to accept.

After the cruise, the Arnshys will enjoy another week on Santa Domingo at the oceanside Coral Hamaca.

Anne says all the Slot Machine prizes were good. Another grand prize winner received a complete home computer system.

The Arnshys, who moved to Norwood eight years ago from Scarborough, have never been to the Caribbean but are about to change all that and at the same time add a few more exotic stamps to their passports.

Saga of the Rail

July 17-19, 1998

Dressing the part

Are you wondering what to wear to this year's Rock 'N Rail Historical Festival in Havelsok?

In order to help build a common theme, the Festival Committee is encouraging everyone to dress in costumes dating back to the period between 1890 and 1930.

This will give everyone a chance to find a costume that suits their personality. Not everyone is meant to be a flapper! We request the actual participants in the festival dress in period costumes, but this need not be expensive or fancy.

Young men, hired for the event, will be wearing dark pants, long sleeved dress shirts (which may or may not have sleeves rolled up), vests or braces and, if outside, a cap or hat.

Young ladies will wear long skirts and long sleeved blouses. Some, who are depicting a specific character, such as Eliza Doolittle, will wear a costume suited to the character.

We appreciate the local businesses whose staff dressed in historical costumes last year. It helped set the scene for a super first annual Rock 'N Rail.

This year, we would like to encourage everyone, residents or visitors, to wear old fashioned clothing/costumes to create a truly historical atmosphere for the July 17-19 festival weekend.

Please contact Patricia Rossi at 705-778-3225, if you wish to put your name forth as a sewer, or need more information on costuming yourself, your family, friends or employees.

On another note: anyone interested in volunteering their time (for basic carpentry and painting) Monday to Friday between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. (under the guidance of Luigi Rossi), please contact him at the above number.

Lions donation was $7,000, not $700

By Rose Scollick
Cordova Correspondent

Lost -- Somewhere between my notes and the printing of this column, we lost an "O" last week, and we apologize to the Havelsok Lions Club. The donation from them was for $7,000, not $700 (as stated in last week's paper), and as I said before, it was greatly appreciated.

The Havelsok Lions Club have always given us such helpful boosts financial and otherwise whenever needed. I would also like to acknowledge Mr. Fred Oliver's call to Shirley Graham, my receiver of messages in the Havelsok area code.

If we make a mistake, please let us know.

The joint meeting of the Cordova Mines Recreation Association and the Cordova Mines Library Association was held on Jan. 20 with 24 in attendance.

The meeting began with a discussion regarding the kitchen. This was proving to become lengthy, so it was tabled until Jan. 22.

The Rock 'N Rail festival dissertation got under way with Mr. Keith Haines offering input on the condition of the mine property. After much discussion, with noting definite being realized, this was tabled for future discussions.

Doug Caverly offered his resignation as treasurer, effective Jan. 31. Bob Steenberg will become our new treasurer at that time.

A number of bookings from the Cordova Mines United Church were recorded.

As you know from reading this column, I call our new building the Recreation Room, while others refer to it as the Recreation Hall. We have agreed to call it the Cordova Mines Community Centre.

During my report of last week, I mentioned a Kitchen Building Committee, and I omitted Shirley Pressick, a diligent worker from that group. Apology accepted, Shirley?

An executive meeting for the Cordova Mines Recreation Association will be held Jan. 29 at 7 p.m.

to bad weather. On one day five teachers were late due to poor driving conditions and four teachers were late on a following day. All late teachers assumed their classroom duties upon arrival, retrieving their students from "doubled up" classes. Secretaries, Educational Assistants and Custodians were also at work. On one afternoon those staff who have a long drive or who drive on difficult roads were allowed to leave one and a quarter hours early to enable them to drive in daylight, as there were quickly deteriorating weather and road conditions.

During those days when attendance was lower, students were instructed, practised work, received extra help and attention and had time to work on assignments. Our staff teaches students and takes advantage of the opportunity to spend more time with the individuals who are present.

When weather conditions allow buses to run again staff attempts to help students who were absent catch up either by reteaching lessons, by altering work assignments or especially with older students by assigning homework.

The decision to cancel buses is made by drivers and owners in the interests of the safety of bussed children. I do not believe as a society that we wish children's safety compromised. However, when buses are cancelled, our school has been able to remain open and students who can get here take part in programs that further their education.

Thank you for this opportunity to inform the general public.

Madoc Minor Hockey Report

by Karen Nickle

On Jan. 12 our PeeWees wrapped up regular season play with an exhibition match against Belleville. Mark Boyle scored in the opening minute and a half of second period action, assisted by Caleb Atkinson, following a scoreless first. Belleville fired back with three of their own before our Wildcats hit the board again. A power play gave Justin Cassidy the opportunity to narrow the gap with a little over a minute and a half left in the second, assisted by Ryan Johansen and Jim Meraw. With a minute and a second gone in the third, Justin scored a short handed marker assisted by Greg Smith, but Belleville regained their lead with 30 seconds later. Rob Reynolds tied the match at 4-4 on an assist by Caleb Atkinson. At the midway point of the third, Belleville took back the lead, but another power play opened the door for Mike Preston to tie the match at 5-5, assisted by Greg Smith and Josh Leaver. With 1:46 left on the clock Belleville popped in the winner, taking the match 6-5.

Game 1 of their best of five series saw our Bantams open against Havelock at home on Jan. 16. A scoreless first period was followed by plenty of home team scoring in the second, with five Wildcat goals. T.J. Tomlinson opened scoring, on assists from Jesse Cassidy and Adam Bailey. Mike Leaver followed with an assist from Derek Thibault. Jason Wilson popped in an unassisted marker. Derrick Blackburn scored on a pass from T.J. Tomlinson and Brandon McLean scored on assists from B.J. Rollins and Jesse Cassidy. Third period play saw goals scored by Mike

McCann, Jason Wilson and Duke Cassidy, while Jason, Rob Curtis, Mike McCann, Adam Gray and Mike Leaver netted assists. Havelock managed one third period goal on a power play as our Wildcats took Game 1 with an 8-2 win.

Deseronto hosted our Novices in Game 1 of their best two out of three first round series. Colby Bird played net in this 5-1 loss. Jarrod Cassidy broke the host shutout in the third period, on an assist from Cody Chambers. Our Novices were shutout by Deseronto in the second game of this series and will continue their season in Hastings and District Playdowns.

Our Bantams had a successful showing in Havelock in Game 2 of their first round series, defeating Havelock, 7-3. A win on Friday, Jan. 23 would provide a "sweep" for the Bantam first round.

Warkworth fell victim to our Atom A's with back to back Wildcat wins on Jan. 20 and 21. Game 2 saw a 4-1 win for the home team and the third game of the series was a 3-0 shutout. Congratulations to our Atom A's who are waiting for a couple of other series to finish up before continuing.

The PeeWee D series stands at two games for Tweed, one for Madoc following our Wildcat 5-3 road win on Jan. 21. Our PeeWees could tie the series with a win on Friday night.

Please keep an eye on Hastings Cablevision for up-to-date series standings and game schedules.

Centre Hastings to push for toll free calling within municipal boundaries

by Jeff Wilson

Centre Hastings Township Council endorsed an initiative to request toll free calling within the municipal boundaries of the newly created Centre Hastings Township.

There are currently four exchanges that exist within the boundaries of Centre Hastings, including 473, 477, 478, 395. Some of these exchanges are toll free to each other, but a couple are long distance.

Council voted to have the Clerk contact Bell Canada asking the company to progress to the point where toll free call is available throughout the municipality.

See page 12 for Cooper Carnival results

Centre Hastings man arrested

Quinte OPP detectives have arrested a Centre Hastings resident in connection with a break-in that occurred on Wilson Road in Centre Hastings on Jan. 5. Police report the home was entered shortly before midnight when the victims were in bed and property was removed from the home. Alan Dale LeClair, 36, of Quim-Mo-Lac Road has been charged with break, enter and theft, possession of stolen property and breach of probation.

LeClair is being held in custody for a bail hearing on Jan. 26.

Bylaw passes approving municipal office site

by Jeff Wilson

A bylaw to approve Ivanhoe as the site for the municipal offices for Centre Hastings Township passed without discussion or public dissent.

Council passed the bylaw during a regular council meeting held on Tuesday, Jan. 27 at the former village municipal office.

The municipal office location issue which an emotional topic of discussion for municipal politicians, the business community and the community-at-large, was decided with no ceremony.

The Madoc and District Chamber of Commerce (former Madoc Business Association) was listed on the council agenda to appear as a delegation to discuss the office location, but representatives failed to appear during the meeting.

In an interview, Chamber of Commerce President Mike Stevens stated that members were to have attended the meeting. He added that he personally could not attend as he had a board meeting for the Madoc Co-op, where he is the general manager. Stevens said he would like to apologize to residents living in both the north and south of the new municipality (Centre Hastings) for "falling down on our duty."

of campaigning for the municipal office location in the former village. The Chamber of Commerce still strongly feels that the municipal office should be located in the urban centre of the new municipality for many reasons, with the key one being economic costs to residents in years to come.

During a transition board meeting last year, the Chamber had requested 10 days notice before a final decision on the location of municipal office was made. Council agreed to honor that request, and at the last council meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 14 the Clerk was instructed to prepare a bylaw to locate the municipal office in Ivanhoe. This action set aside the final decision for 13 days before the bylaw was passed.

In the vote, three council members, including Huntington Ward

Councillors Larry Mitz and Dave Schulz along with Deputy-Reeve Walton Reid voted in favor, while Madoc Ward Councillor Crichton Harrop was the only dissenting vote.

Following the vote, Reeve Tom Deline asked that the Clerk and Treasurer make the necessary preparations to initiate the move.

Deline also informed council that the Centre Hastings Hydro Commission was to hold a meeting on Wednesday and he would discuss their use of the former village municipal office building it currently occupies.

A fond farewell to Madoc

It is with a little sadness that I write this column to announce that this is my last issue as the Editor.

I have enjoyed by time working and living in the community of Madoc. When I came to the area, I was a wet-behind-the-ears, city boy, who was looking for a little experience in the newspaper business. Now that I have that experience under my belt, I feel it is time to move on, so I am moving back to my hometown of Scarborough to pursue my journalism career.

As I reflect back on my six and a half years as Editor of the Madoc Review, I have many fond memories of events that I have covered and the wonderful people I have met and had the pleasure of getting to know over the years.

First things first, I would like to make a heartfelt apology to all those people whose names I have misspelled, or even worse, totally misidentified. The number of people is too great to name, plus I don't want to give myself another opportunity to screw it up again.

As an avid sports fan I was thrilled to find that the Madoc area had a thriving sports community.

I would like to give a special thank you to Karen Nickle, and prior to her, Kathy Leaver, for religiously providing the Review with minor hockey write-ups, week in, week out over the hockey season, giving the kids the recognition they richly deserve.

My fondest sports memory came last year when I travelled to the London area to watch the Madoc Bantams and PeeWees play in All-Ontario's final series. The experience of witnessing the emotions of players and parents is a memory that will never leave me.

Another great memory I will take with me, is the OFSAA Boys AA Volleyball Tournament hosted by Centre Hastings Secondary School in November 1994. The event was superbly organized by Carm Donato (Mr. Volleyball). An added bonus was to see the CHSS team perform exceptionally well, finishing fourth overall out of 16 teams.

There will be many things I will miss as I leave this community, not the least of which will be my morning chats with the Old Farts (Jack Martin, Jim Reid, Don Ash, Stan Asselstine) at Becker's when I pick up my coffee, newspaper and breakfast of champions (a brownie).

To my office buddies, Pauline Harris and Sherry Sanders, you ladies are the best co-workers a person could ever have and even better friends. Thanks for Continued on page 2

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The positive response to "Anything Goes" the musical presented by a combined drama and music class at CHSS has been overwhelming to both Kim Coulson (music director) and myself (Bill Piton - drama director). The contribution to the success was due in part to the support of the media network at work in the Centre Hastings area. The news stories and photos published in the Madoc Review, Land O' Lakes Sun, Community Press and the Intelligence, sustained interest by providing periodic updates during the past four months. In Madoc, the Hastings Cablevision regularly broadcast a program of songs from the show and interviews with cast members.

Local radio stations frequently promoted the show and were quick to inform their listeners of the postponement of opening night. "BC's radio's, "Ontario Morning" produced a feature item about the production broadcasting our story throughout southern Ontario.

The cast soon became aware of the valuable contribution made by local newspapers, radio and television. Kim, the cast and I thank all the media editors and producers for helping "Anything Goes" become a memorable community event.

What are the three most important things about property assessment?

Fairness, fairness and fairness.

During February, property owners will receive a Notice of Property Assessment and an information package in the mail.

Your Notice shows the Current Value Assessment of your property. From now on, property assessments will be kept fair, consistent and up-to-date for everyone. Your municipality will continue to be responsible for setting municipal property tax rates.

Your Notice package will tell you more about the Ontario Fair Assessment System. For example, it will tell you:

- how municipalities must assist low-income senior and disabled homeowners and how they can phase in any tax changes over a period of up to eight years;
- where and when information sessions on the new system will be held in your community.

For more information, call the Assessment Information Line at: 1-800-827-1857, or call your Regional Assessment Office. Or visit the website at <http://www.gov.on.ca/FIN/english/propeng.htm>

Presbyterian WMS hold annual meeting

The Peterborough Presbyterian WMS annual meeting was held at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, in Port Hope on Jan. 21. The theme of the meeting was "Belong to Jesus with healing and harmony" (Luke, chapter 4 vs 16-30 and Matthew, chapter 28 vs 16-20).

After registration, a sing along was led by Jackie Kelly, of Norwood, accompanied by pianist Helen King, of Warkworth. President Ada Chapman, of Lakehurst, opened the meeting with prayer. Nancy Millar, of Norwood, conducted the worship service. Rev. David McBride, of St. Paul's (Port Hope) welcomed everyone to the church. The treasurer's report was given by Jean Coul, of Cobourg, followed by the annual reports: Adult Secretary, Jackie Kelly, of Norwood; Literature and Glad Tidings, Eleanor Reading, of Norwood; Historian, and Barbara Althouse, of Norwood, Press.

Mr. Will Elmslie sang a medley of songs, accompanied by Mr. Ross Metcalf, at the piano. Members then viewed a video, entitled "Out in the Cold", a CBC National News Production about concerns for life of street people in Toronto.

After lunch, the session started with another sing along and roll call. Marie Glover, of Warkworth, led a Memorial Service.

Kass Whitefield, of Cobourg, introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Charlotte Brown (Executive Secretary of the WMS). Her topic was about the future of the WMS. This was a participation presentation and many ideas were expressed. The nominating committee, from Campbellford, presented the slate of officers for 1998 and Rev. Brown installed them.

Courtesies were given by Marilyn Dow, of Bowmanville.

President Ada Chapman closed the meeting with prayer.

A friend's sled goes missing at a popular trailside pit stop. Another buddy, awakened to outside noises, ends up chasing sled stratchers down the street in his pyjamas. A neighbour's machines disappear from behind the cottage shed. Sled theft is the reality. The snowmobiling boom has created demand for backmarket parts, accessories and machines. Sled parts, slicks, locks, limited availability, owner neglect and a lack of deterrents fuel a fulltime, lucrative, underground industry. Comments on insurance crime prevention investigator, "Sleds are disappearing so fast in some areas that they are only safe when their owners are riding them." We're taking crime here, folks, and not by the hard core criminals. Increasingly, dishonest snowmobilers are trying to cheat the system too, making claims for sleds "stolen" by appointment, deliberately left vulnerable, stripped, stored or otherwise not legitimately missing at all. Add bogus claims for self-inflicted damage and arson, light triggered pyroding, or intentional sinking and it's costing YOU and I big bucks. According to sources, too many incidents are deliberate premeditated and recurring. So law enforcement agencies are treating snowmobile theft, fraud and other claims as priority targets this winter. More investigations, new reporting systems, quicker response, increased public education, and even well-coordinated "sling" operations are underway. "We're asking more questions, not taking more proof than ever before," an insurer reports. "No one is going to get away with anything easily." But why all the fuss over an essentially victimless crime? No one is hurt and losses are easily compensated. That's what insurance is for, right? Wrong. Soaring premiums are the price you and I pay for the misfortune, negligence and outright deceit of fellow snowmobilers. At least 20% of our cost is directly attributable to fraudulent, bogus, or unnecessary insurance claims. These claims represent incidents, purported or otherwise, that should never have required an insurance adjuster's attention, much less received compensation. If paying too much for insurance isn't bad enough, what about the danger of being priced out of the snow yourself? Imagine sitting at home all winter because YOU can't afford, or maybe even get, insurance coverage. It happened to motorcycling, it could still happen to snowmobiling too. Or how's this for being victimized? Your special sled is stolen. You can't get a suitable replacement, so you have to sit out the winter. Sound farfetched? Your claim could take 6 to 8 weeks to process, so until the money comes, how are you going to buy a new sled? And even then, where are you going to find your special sled with dealers stocks depleted? So who said it's a victimless crime? What can be done? Make your sled harder to steal by using several of the new commercial deterrent devices available from snowmobile dealers. Look it up whenever you're not actually sitting on it. Never

The report says estimated savings from the withdrawal of services total $6.1 million with the province taking back $1.9 million of that in a clawback—the current grant regulation including a provision for the province to take back a percentage of these savings.

With the clawback, the Board's net savings are now reduced to $4.2 million.

As of Jan. 22, approximately 13,400 applications for pay-outs have been made across DSB 14 for a total of around $5 million leaving a difference of $800,000.

The cost to administer this provincial program is projected to be a minimum of at least $40,000, the Board says.

Mailed payments to parents were to begin Jan. 23 with the cheques being sent directly to homes.

The final pay-out amount will be reported to the board.

Rebel rookie scores winner in both games against Jets

By Rolly Ethier

Getting timely offensive production from unexpected sources, the Campbellford Rebels stayed in the hunt for first place with a hard-fought sweep against the speedy Ernestown Jets last weekend.

Havelock's Scott King, who has performed mostly as a fourth-line forward this season, emerged the hero in both games. He popped in the winning goal in Saturday night's 4-3 victory in Campbellford and then duplicated the feat Sunday night when the Rebels nipped the Jets 3-2 at Ernestown ice.

Performing on a line with two Marmora products, Chris Nickle and Adam Hagerman, King snapped a 3-3 deadlock with only 2:11 left in the game as Hagerman and defenceman Jon Quinlan assisted.

Then in another tough defensive battle Sunday, King connected with almost 11 minutes left in the final period and the teams tied up 2-2. This time Hagerman and Nickle earned assists on the big play.

Even with the home-and-home sweep, however, the Rebels still occupied second place in the Eastern League junior C race, trailing the leading Picton Pirates by a single point heading into the final week of the schedule.

In Saturday night's game, Rebels struck quickly as Kevin Larmers swept in from the opening faceoff to neatly outmanoeuvre goalie Craig DeSavoie. However, the Jets regrouped and soon took the initiative, forcing goalie Matt Barry to come up big on several occasions before Scott Heaubien squared matters 10 minutes later.

Campbellford led 3-2 after two periods on goals by Travis Turner and Chris Nickle. Jason Withers drawing the only reply for Ernestown.

Sean Beck put the Jets on even terms with 9:06 left in the final frame as he teamed up with Withers and Jake Emers. That set the stage for the King's game-winning goal.

Some big saves by Barry played a key role in the Rebel victory. Barry turned aside 25 shots in a sterling performance as the Jets outshot the Rebels 28-23.

The Sunday game was virtually a reprise. In another hard-fought but cleanly played match, Ernestown took a 2-0 lead before the Rebels got untracked. Wes Newton converted a pass from Heaubien in the first period and then Beck connected with 4:24 remaining in the second session.

The Rebel comeback started 80 seconds later when Larmer, working with Jim Hazlewood and Jon Quinlan, got the puck past goalie Kevin Sanbirskey. Still trailing by a single goal heading into the final 20 minutes,

First, a reminder that the "More Able Than Disabled Club" meeting is on February 10 at 1 p.m. at the Multi Care Lodge. Everyone welcome! Hope to see you there! This is the third week of the three part article on "Alternative Therapies".

You know, we all possess the power to heal. We were talking about Natural Healing techniques over Robert Burns' birthday and it dawned on us that we haven't touched on the most powerful healer of all: the healing power of Love.

In the book entitled "Your Healing Hands: the Polarity Experience" by Richard Gordon, is this insight.

"Love is the Best Healer"

For centuries, many have said that Love is the best healer. Love is the life-force. If it becomes blocked, life-force will become blocked, and the body will reflect this.

We do not need to try and create love, for love is our true nature and essence.

This is so very true! This article is from me and Sandra with love.

Love is a basic, fundamental emotion needed to live. Love of self and others has been proven to benefit people in healing. Love as a therapy has been met in a variety of ways, and described in a number of ways. Self esteem and empowerment are forms of self love. Empathy is another form of love. To help someone, as in support groups, there has to be an element of love involved, especially if it was a painful experience for the helper. The love felt in such a situation may lie in the fact that you came through it, and in celebrating the fact that you survived.

Love is the Best Healer

Philosophers and psychologists have told us: "You are all you have. Therefore, make yourself the most beautiful, tender, wonderful, fantastic person in the world, and then you will always survive."

When we recognize the importance of ourselves and returning to a self-respect and a self-love, and realizing that all things start and end with yourself, then can we give to others. Saint-Exupery, the French philosopher believes that: "Perhaps love is the process of my leading you gently back to yourself." "As soon as the love relationship does not lead me to me, and as soon as I, in a love relationship, does not lead the other person to himself, this love, even if it seems to be the most secure and ecstatic attachment I have ever experienced, is not true love."

Love releases endorphins which are a human hormone that promotes physical and psychological healing. Love can help to heal. Reiki and Touch therapy are therapies where love is used. If there aren't positive "love" energies flowing from giver to receiver, the touch therapy isn't as effective. The receiver benefits by an increase in body temperature which aids in the cleansing of body toxins and in an increase of heart rate which is great for the circulation.

The receiver benefits by receiving the positive energy through touch. Psychological healing takes place through relaxation during therapy for both parties as well.

You can only give to others what you have yourself. This is especially true of love. You cannot give what you have not learned and experienced. Loving oneself does not imply an ego-centered relationship with oneself, but does mean a genuine interest, caring, concern and respect for oneself.

IODE launches fund-raiser for victims of ice storm

The provincial chapter of Ontario IODE, along with its 185 chapters located across the province, is spearheading a fundraising initiative to aid the victims of the Eastern Ontario storm crisis.

Funds are being collected through local, municipal and provincial chapters. Income tax receipts will be issued for amounts over $10.

The situation is very fluid and the needs of today may be different from the needs of tomorrow. Monetary donations will be used to purchase food and other items as critical shortages arise.

If anyone has connections in the eastern area to obtain generators, firewood, batteries, kerosene and propane, the IODE's Municipal Chapter asks people to contact the Municipal Services Officer, Sue Ellwood, at (613) 820-0136 (phone) or (613) 825-0798 (fax).

The mission of the IODE, a Canadian women's charitable organization established in 1900, is to improve the quality of life for children, youth and those in need.

For more information, contact area Vice-President Marilyn Murray at (705) 653-3063, or the Provincial Chapter of Ontario IODE at 1070 Main Street West, Suite 2B, Hamilton, Ont., L8S 1B4, or call (905) 522-9537 (phone); or (905) 522-3637 (fax).

Rebel rookie

Rebels broke through early in the third period with Jeff Hay the triggerman and Travis Turner doing the playmaking.

Then five minutes later Scott King came through again and the Rebels checked furiously the rest of the way to protect their slender margin.

Only 10 minor penalties were called in the playoff-like encounter with the Rebels serving just four of the sentences.

More Aabled Than Disabled

An analogy for this feeling is one of the winter season. Some people look at winter as "The dead of winter" and spring as the time of year for life to begin. Winter can also be viewed as the earth's quiet time, when it regroups and sleeps to awaken with the spring. It is a time when the trees are growing internally in preparation to blossom in the spring. When we are experiencing personal winter, the preparation to blossom with the spring lies in the self-love we use to nourish our souls.

Cheese and Spinach Casserole with Rosemary
Rosemary has been said to be used to make husbands faithful and as a hair rinse for brunettes! (No comment)

1/2 tsp. Rosemary (or if you suspect your husband of cheating...1/4 tsp. more!)
1/4 cup cream
1 cup grated swiss cheese

Method: Cook spinach, drain thoroughly and place in buttered baking dish. Cover with cheese, cream and season with salt, pepper and rosemary. Place under broiler until cheese is completely melted and begins to brown. Serves 4.

Storm relief fund

Toronto:The Ontario Federation of Agriculture has launched the Ontario Rural Relief Fund to help farmers in the storm-ravaged areas of Eastern Ontario cope with what is deemed by many to be the "largest natural disaster in Canadian history."

"It's going to take a long time for farmers in Eastern Ontario to recuperate from this devastating storm," says OFA president Ed Segsworth. "The damage is unprecedented and we want to do everything we can to help rural residents get back on their feet. We're hoping that the fund will help cover the cost of items not covered by insurance policies."

The much-needed resources will be used to restore livestock systems, replace pumps, electrical lines and transformers on farmers' properties (which farmers traditionally must pay to replace themselves) as well as tractor and generator damage and livestock injury.

"It's difficult to imagine the scope of damage that is out there until you have seen it," says Segsworth.

More than 600 generators have been distributed to farmers in Eastern Ontario by the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs.

Tales From Shiloh Farm

by Chris Bertelsen

On Sunday, Jan. 11, Madoc lost another dear soul in the person of Brian McDonald, 46.

Brian had a heart attack the week before and was taken to Belleville General Hospital where the doctors had difficulty in stabilizing his blood pressure due partly to complications of diabetes and a build up of fluid in his lungs. However, due to the ice storms it was not possible to move him to Ottawa and so it was not until the following Thursday that he could be moved to the Toronto General Hospital, where he died during surgery to close two holes in his heart and a triple bypass.

Brian was small in stature and frail in physical nature, suffering from a congenital heart defect, diabetes, as well as a condition of the spine. However, in spirit he was a giant with much courage and full of humor unique to Brian (sometimes it took you a while to get it). He was gentle and loving to all he met, but when needed he could be firm and unmovable. He and his wife Jill McDonald had only been married a year. While married, he was a loving supportive husband and a good father to his step children, Isaac, Lewis and Sara Jane.

Brian was a devout supporter of the Bahai religious community, praying daily in praise of God. On Tuesday, Feb. 13 at 2:30 p.m. he was laid to rest in the Bahai cemetery in Richmond Hill. A standing room only attendance at the funeral and hundreds of phone calls received at the McDonald residence was a testament to the tremendous influence

Brian had during the course of his life.

Prior to his marriage, Brian had run group homes for exceptional children and was also a social worker for the Children's Aid Society.

Jill and Brian ran a group in Madoc which included four men. When Brian had his heart attack my wife and I moved into their house and substituted for them to allow Jill to spend time at the hospital without having to worry about her boarders. Luckily our daughter Clare had just moved from Toronto to say with indefinitely, so she was able to look after Shiloh and the animals in our absence. During our nine-day stay there were so many phone calls that we had a young friend of the family Colwyn Thomas on permanent phone duty.

The first I had ever heard of the Bahai faith was at the time we bought the Ron Devolin farm from Doug Kettle who at 72, built the log house next door and then also died of a heart attack.

Doug was a frequent visitor for a coffee and a gab and he introduced me to Brian. The Two belonged to the Thursday Night bowling league. League members must be present to wonder who is next because they also lost Maurice Laporte when he had to move for health reasons. I hope that team is not jinxed because I have started bowling in Brian's place. Incidentally thank you's go to the manager Lorie O'Halloran for receiving me so well and introducing me to the intricacies of computerized 5-pin bowling.

I had been told by some people, here in Madoc that Bahai's were a cult, not a religion and that anyone belonging to the group would go to Hell.

Now this didn't actually bother me too much because I had also been told at various times by various religious groups.

And many times by Jehovah's Witnesses that as a baptized Lutheran I was destined for Hell.

My Mom, God rest her soul, in my youth told me the same thing would happen if I didn't give up wine, women and song.

At any rate, I phone up 1-800-473-3284 a number Doug had given me and received an information package. From it I found out that the Bahai faith is a world religion and recognized by the United Nations as such. It is the second most widespread religion in the world exceeded only by Christianity. The most recent census puts the world Bahai membership at more than six million living in 230 countries and territories. The number of new members flocking to the church is so numerous that the administration cannot keep up. There are Bahai communities located in numerous municipalities in Canada including Madoc, Stirling, Campbellford, Belleville and Trenton.

The fundamental beliefs of the Bahais are: 1) the progressive revelation of God's plan for mankind, i.e. down through the ages God has revealed himself to man through special beings called manifestations of God. Thus Bahais recognize the validity of all religions, promoting the unity of God, the unity of all religions and the unity of all mankind.

2) all men and women are created equal.

3) individuals are responsible for their own spiritual growth and independent investigation of truth (therefore no ministers to tell one what to think and read).

4) individuals are inherently good.

5) if science and religious interpretation are in conflict then either one or the other needs deeper study or is wrong. The founder born in 1812 in Iran called Baha'ullah meaning "the glory of God" states that the source of all learning is the knowledge of God.

6) you are a spiritual being who continues to progress even after death.

7) the human race is continually maturing - God's kingdom on Earth will not drop out of the sky. It will be built by all of us, one heart at a time.

The idea that Bahais belong to a sect or cult is a myth spread by those who feel threatened by the growth of the Bahai faith, particularly in Muslim countries. The regime in Iran is currently engaged in widespread vicious persecution and in the past engaged in genocide executing Bahais who refused to deny their faith. I thank God that we live in a more enlightened society with a Bill of Rights which guarantees religious freedom.
